Cultures Thomas Huckle Weller,Anthony L. Komaroff,Ellen Barlow,2004 The Prentice Hall Good Reading Guide Kenneth McLeish,1988 The Heirs of Jane Austen Rachel R. Mather,1996 The Heirs of Jane Austen emphasizes the uniqueness the similarity and the diversity in the social comedies of three British writers of the early twentieth century working in the tradition of Jane Austen Edward F Benson E M Delafield and Angela Thirkell This work demonstrates the enduring charm and appeal of these social interactions that have become social history Big Bend Country Kenneth Baxter Ragsdale,1998 Having first visited the Big Bend in 1928 Kenneth B Ragsdale has been digging around in and writing about the region for decades In Big Bend Country Land of the Unexpected he takes a nostalgic retrospective journey through the times and places of this increasingly popular corner of West Texas to say goodbye to those who made the history created the myths and lived the legends Building his stories around themes of compassion conflict and compromise he profiles both famous and relatively unknown figures He tells stories of curanderas healers charity workers a woman who practiced medicine without a license and another who started a private lending library in her store to encourage rural poor children to read In contrast to these stories he chronicles blood feuds shootouts and the violence bred in wild relatively lawless spaces Ragsdale s stories cover a half century roughly 1900 to 1955 from wagon trains to the filming of an epic movie a time in which the face of the Big Bend changed the quicksilver mines closed a national park was established isolation and cattle gave way to vacation ranchettes and tourists Big Bend Country is a well done and useful work and should be welcomed by all lovers of that wonderful country Dallas Morning News If you ve never been to Big Bend Ken Ragsdale s new book will make you want to go there Austin American Statesman Marisa Mori and the Futurists Jennifer Griffiths,2023-01-12 This book introduces a compelling new personality to the modernist canon Marisa Mori 1900 1985 who became the only female contributor to The Futurist Cookbook 1932 with her recipe for Italian Breasts in the Sun Providing something more complex than a traditional biographical account Griffiths presents a feminist critique of Mori s art converging on issues of gender culture and history to offer new critical perspectives on Italian modernism If subsequently written out of modernist memory Mori was once at the center of the Futurism movement in Italy yet she worked outside the major European capitals and fluctuated between traditional figurative subjects and abstract experimentation As a result her in between pictures can help to re think the margins of modernism By situating Mori s most significant artworks in the critical context of interwar Fascism and highlighting her artistic contributions before during and after her Futurist decade Griffiths contributes to a growing body of knowledge on the women who participated in the Italian Futurist movement In doing so she explores a woman artist s struggle for modernity among the Italian Futurists in an age of Fascism Perversions of Fascism Antonios

Vadolas,2018-04-17 Contemporary versions of evil demonise modern fascists totalitarian threats and Hitlers As if not obscure enough fascist evil has been equivocally linked with perversion This book reveals that both fascism and perversion implicate the non symbolisable kernel in politics which becomes the source of their mystification It argues that the fascist does not take the same discursive position as the pervert does regarding this symbolic gap The author develops a new rhetoric de pathologised and de ideologised regarding the structure of the so called pervert introducing new vocabularies and directions for psychoanalytic research that further distance the pervert or whom he calls the extra ordinary subject from fascist politics and instead exposes his diachronic fascist isolation from the social edifice This reveals the fruitful alternatives that can stem from a return to Freud cum Lacan which supports a flexible on going reformulation of psychoanalytic knowledge

W. Astell, 2019-11-30 Hailed in Sacred Scripture as the beginning of wisdom Ps 111:10 the fear of the Lord is seldom mentioned and little understood today A gift of the Spirit and a moral virtue or disposition the fear of the Lord also frequently entails emotional experiences of differing kinds compunction dread reverence wonderment and awe Starting with the Bible itself this collection of seventeen essays explores the place of holy fear in Christian spirituality from the early church to the present and argues that this fear is paradoxically linked in various ways to fear's seeming opposite love Indeed the charged dynamic of love and fear accounts for different experiences and expressions of Christian life in response to changing historical circumstances and events The writings of the theologians mystics philosophers saints and artists studied here reveal the relationship between the fear and the love of God to be profoundly challenging and mysterious its elements paradoxically conjoined in a creative tension with each other but also tending to oscillate back and forth in the history of Christian spirituality as first one then the other comes to the fore sometimes to correct a perceived imbalance sometimes at the risk of losing its companion altogether Given this historical pattern clearly evident in these chronologically arranged essays the palpable absence of a discourse of holy fear from the mainstream theological landscape should give us pause and invite us to consider if and how under what aspect in which contexts a holy fear inseparable from love might be regained or discovered anew within Christian spirituality as a remedy both for a crippling anxiety and for a presumptive recklessness This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Christian spirituality theology biblical studies religious studies and religion and literature Contributors Ann W Astell Pieter G R de Villiers Donna R Hawk Reinhard John Sehorn Catherine Rose Cavadini Joseph Wawrykow Robert Boenig Ralph Keen Wendy M Wright Ephraim Radner Julia A Lamm Cyril O Regan Brenna Moore Maj Britt Frenze and Todd Walatka
