Alfred H. Bornemann

Lucien Leuwen Two The Telegraph:

Lucien Leuwen Stendhal, 1950 The Politics of the Center Vincent E. Starzinger, This is a study of what it means both strategically and intellectually to take the center position in politics The two specific political centers considered are the efforts in France and England after the Napoleonic Wars to establish middle class rule as a permanent center or juste milieu between the extremes of revolution and reaction The four prototypical political thinkers examined are Pierre Paul Royer Collard and Francois Pierre Guillaume Guizot in France and the English reform Whigs Henry Peter Brougham and Thomas Babington Macaulay Starzinger carefully explains his choice of these critical figures emphasizing in his new introduction a current climate of opinion that is far more appreciative of their contribution to modern constitutional government than the critics have been in the past This is much more than an historical study It is an effort to examine the enduring ideas and dynamics of political centrism which help explain why the center sometimes proves to be a hopeless position but in other circumstances can hold or even vanquish its foes to left and right The work is highlighted by a comparative mode of analysis which explores these questions with sustained sensitivity to the differing social and political contexts of 19th century France and England Starzinger also considers the moral dilemma of those who hold the middle ground He asks whether such a center position must always lead to opportunism as its critics claim or may instead serve some high ethical purpose Finally in examining the juste milieu concepts of sovereignty representation freedom and history he addresses critically the classic question of what indeed the relationship is between political ideas and underlying social class This book will be of interest to both political scientists and historians Stendhal: Education of a Novelist Strickland, 1974-08-15 Lucien Leuwen Stendhal, 1951 Telegraphic Imperialism Deep Kanta Lahiri Choudhury, 2010-10-27 The first electronic communication network transformed language distance and time This book researches the telegraph system of the British Indian Empire c 1850 to 1920 exploring one of the most significant transnational phenomena of the imperial world and the link between communication Empire and social change Stendhal as Economist Alfred H. Bornemann, 1994 Argues that French novelist Stendhal 1783 1842 was a pioneer economist part of the emerging interest in Adam Smith and the development of political economics in France in the early 1800 s Describes his informal economic education and critiques his political treatises and the relationship between his economic perceptions and his novels No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Real Time David F. Bell, 2010-10-01 In Real Time David F Bell explores the decisive impact the accelerated movement of people and information had on the fictions of four giants of French realism Balzac Stendhal Dumas and Zola Nineteenth century technological advances radically altered the infrastructure of France changing the ways ordinary citizens and literary characters viewed time space distance and speed The most influential of these advances included the improvement of the stagecoach the growth of road and canal networks leading to the advent of the railway and the increasing use of mail and of the optical telegraph Citing examples from a wide range of novels and stories Bell demonstrates the numerous ways in which these trends of acceleration became not just literary devices and themes but also structuring principles of the novels themselves Beginning with both the provincial and the Parisian communications networks of Balzac Bell proceeds to discuss the roles of horses and optical telegraphs in Stendhal and the importance of domination of communication channels to the characters of Dumas whose Count of Monte Cristo might be seen as the ultimate fictional master of this accelerated culture Finally Bell analyzes the cinematic vision created by the arrival of the railroad as depicted by Zola in La B te Humaine

Exotics at Home Micaela di Leonardo, 2000-03-16 What is the exotic after all In this study Micaela di Leonardo reveals the face of power within the mask of cultural difference Focusing on the intimate and shifting relations between popular portrayals of exotic Others and the practice of anthropology that profession assumed to be America's Guardian of the Offbeat she casts new light on gender race and the public sphere in America's past and present Chicago's 1893 Columbian World Exposition and today's college town ethnic boutiques frame di Leonardo's century long analysis

The Strange Liberalism of Alexis de Tocqueville Roger Boesche, 2019-05-15 The Strange Liberalism of Alexis de Tocqueville places Tocqueville's political thought in the context of his time and place and shows why his ideas defy easy classification Responding to the twentieth century tendency to impose anachronistic political categories on Tocqueville Roger Boesche reminds us that like Stendhal Balzac Hugo Lamartine Flaubert and other writers of his generation he was a nineteenth century Frenchman reacting to contemporary French concerns aspirations and anxieties

For You Hayden Carruth, 1978-01-17 This book collects five long poems that have previously appeared with one exception only in magazines and limited editions One critic has called them virtually secret Yet they are probably the heart of Carruth's poetic achievement both technically and thematically Rising from the experience of emotional illness and the asylum the poems move at intervals and over a period of nearly fifty years toward a sustained workable view of humanity in crisis I have tried to create a person Carruth writes specifically a seeing living surmounting person Modesty is important and so are winter and the north A man alone in the snow is still much in this world including the social world though his inness is naturally a form of rebellion The poems included are The Asylum Journey to a Known Place North Winter Contra Mortem and My Father's Face
