Borderlands W. H. New, 2011-11-01 Under the general title of Borderlands the three related essays in this monograph address the rhetoric of border boundary in Canadian studies and its social political and cultural implications the character of cultural responses to Canada US border tensions and two specific examples of how border transgressions continue to affect current Washington State and British Columbia cultural expression A number of motifs appear throughout these essays including the politics of separation the persistence of racist discourse in North America and of attempts to counter it the role of education in informing public debate the existence of communally held social values in Canada the necessity of the arts the power of language and the relation between social choice and indeterminacy The first essay Giddy Limits ranges the most widely drawing on examples from history and literature geography and popular culture It elucidates the politics of various recurrent rhetorical strategies in Canadian cultural commentary The second essay The Edge of Everything pursues a series of specific applications of border rhetoric including irony national policies and oppositional strategies to Canada US relations The third essay The Centre of Somewhere Else looks in part at the rhetoric of two contemporary writers Seattle's David Guterson and Victoria's Jack Hodgins in relation to the 1859 Pig War and to curricular reform This final essay demonstrates further how the large issues raised in the first two essays resonate both in historical narrative and in contemporary social and cultural practice

The Macken Charm Jack Hodgins, 1995 It is the summer of 1956 and although Rusty Macken is eager to leave rural Vancouver Island and his family for university the events of Glory's funeral will not make it easy Over the course of a single day the rambunctious Macken clan gathers at the site of the burned down seaside hotel that was once the family base to mourn and remember the glamorous city girl who married the wildest Macken of all but never quite adapted to their country ways By the time the sun comes up on the following day Rusty may have participated in something of a miracle At the very least he will have been forced to confront the uneasy secrets of his own heart Compassionate hilarious and wise The Macken Charm brilliantly captures the joys the frustrations and the rich human drama of family life

The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany     The Macken Charm Jack Hodgins,2000     Blackwatertown Paul Waters,2020-07-23 Extremely intriguing with intricate twists and turns Frederick Forsyth When maverick police sergeant Jolly Macken is banished to the sleepy 1950s Irish border village of Blackwatertown he vows to find the killer of his brother even if the murderer is inside the police But a lot can happen in a week Over seven days Macken falls in love uncovers dark family secrets accidentally starts a war and is hailed a hero and branded a traitor When Blackwatertown explodes into violence who can he trust And is betrayal the only way to survive     The Master of Happy Endings Jack Hodgins,2011-10-10 The Master of Happy Endings is a powerful new novel about memory belonging helping others and the vagaries of the human heart It is also a compelling story about how a man in his late seventies manages to conjure one more great adventure for himself Axel Thorstad lives in a shack on a remote island off the coast of British Columbia Once a popular school teacher and thespian who touched the lives of hundreds of his students he now lives in retirement and mourns the recent death of his wife But even this stoical giant of a 77 year old finds the isolation too much He begins to run want ads in newspapers offering his services as a tutor and meets the indomitable Mrs Montana She hires Axel to coach her precocious teenage TV actor son Travis for his school exams while he shoots a new episode in Hollywood Life in L A is far removed from his isolated life in rural B C and soon Thorstad finds himself caught up in the drama of his young student s life and the return of an old flame Set amidst the fleshpots sound stages and dining rooms of L A this engaging novel of lives and loves lost and found also gestures to the courage one needs in the face of the vulnerabilities of older age that all too soon beset     Australian National Bibliography ,1996     Sensing Space Claire Omhové,2007 This book enlarges the perspective of literary geography which tends to focus on the correspondence between the objective world the geographer addresses and its subjective rendering in art Instead it considers how geography informs fresh aesthetic responses to space in contemporary Canadian literature with specific attention to the writings of Alistair MacLeod Jane Urquhart Anne Michaels Aritha van Herk Rudy Wiebe Robert Kroetsch and Thomas Wharton This broadening leads to a series of interrogations what blanks in conventional landscape writing does physical geography fill and how Where does the efficiency of geography lie beyond its scientific accuracy or descriptive relevance Pondering the role of geography in a work of art therefore amounts to considering what makes geography work as art is there such a thing as a poetics of geography Because the place of the writer and the representation of space remain two central concerns in Canadian writing the texts under scrutiny help elucidate the critical role performed by the geographical imagination a phrase used by theoreticians as diverse as Edward Said Edward Soja or Derek Gregory in the fabrication of symbolic ties between Canadians and the land they have come to share     Western American Literature ,1997     The Grim Pig Charles Gordon,2013-06-18 Modern management has come
