Maclean Timothy P. Schilling, 2024-08-20 With a foreword by John N Maclean son of Norman Maclean The Writings of Norman Maclean Seeking Truth amid Tragedy provides the first critical reassessment of this celebrated author's work in more than a decade In his study Timothy P Schilling focuses on Maclean's attempt in A River Runs through It and Other Stories and Young Men and Fire to come to grips with the tragic side of human existence From the 1938 death of his brother Paul to the 1949 deaths of thirteen firefighters in Montana's Mann Gulch wildfire Maclean is driven by a desire to discover ultimate meaning the truth in the face of haunting tragedy Through careful analysis of all of Maclean's published works

Schilling highlights the audaciousness of Maclean's quest to wrest free an answer from the universe. Ever open to scientific, literary, philosophical and theological ways of viewing reality, Maclean found ambiguity paradoxically to be an essential tool for probing the truth. Beyond exploring Maclean's use of this tool, Schilling breaks new ground by considering Maclean's invocation of the Transcendentals in A River Runs through It, noting the sly homage Maclean pays to Izaak Walton, examining Maclean's often neglected Other Stories, assessing Robert Redford's film adaptation of A River Runs through It, and providing the most thorough exploration of Young Men and Fire yet available. With this book, Schilling offers a current and complete analysis of Maclean, one of the most iconic figures in Western American literature.

Club Women of New York, 1908 Women Artists, Feminism and the Moving Image, Lucy Reynolds, 2019-08-22

What is the significance of gendered identification in relation to artists moving image? How do women artists grapple with the interlinked narratives of gender discrimination and gender identity in their work? In this groundbreaking book, a diverse range of leading scholars, activists, archivists, and artists explore the histories, practices, and concerns of women making film and video across the world, from the pioneering German animator Lotte Reiniger to the influential African American filmmaker Julie Dash and the provocative Scottish contemporary artist Rachel Maclean. Opening with a foreword from the film theorist Laura Mulvey and a poem by the artist-film maker Lis Rhodes, Women Artists, Feminism and the Moving Image traces the legacies of early feminist interventions into the moving image and the ways in which these have been reconfigured in the very different context of today. Reflecting and building upon the practices of recuperation that continue to play a vital role in feminist art practice and scholarship, essays discuss topics such as how multiculturalism is linked to experimental and activist film history, the function and nature of the essay film, feminist curatorial practices, and much more. This book transports the reader across diverse cultural contexts and geographical contours, addressing complex narratives of subjectivity, representation, and labour, while juxtaposing cultures of film, video, and visual arts practice often held apart. As the editor Lucy Reynolds argues, it is at the point where art, moving image, and feminist discourse converge that a rich and dynamic intersection of dialogue and exchange opens up, bringing to attention practices which might fall outside their separate spheres and offering fresh perspectives and insights on those already established in its histories and canons.
