Australian competition law has just emerged from a significant period of reform which has seen controversial changes to the legal test to distinguish between normal competitive conduct and conduct that should be condemned The controversy continues arguably because the traditional legal conception of market power does not provide a useful standard in real world markets This important new book offers a radical interpretation of market power based on the power to manipulate Seeing it in this way allows for positive and normative standards within which to frame a legal theory of liability for misuse of that power The book provides suggestions to improve the forensic assessment of conduct that should be condemned as misuse of market power

Advancing the Frontiers of Heterodox Economics Tae-Hee Jo,Zdravka Todorova,2015-07-30 This collection of essays honors the life and work of one of the most prominent and fervent heterodox economists Frederic S Lee who has been at the heart of the heterodox economics movements for the past three decades Authors in this book demonstrate that heterodox economic has transcended the criticism of mainstream economics and more importantly that constructive developments are in the making by way of cross communications among various heterodox economics traditions Frederic S Lee s contributions to heterodox economics are centered on three themes the making of a history and identity of heterodox economics heterodox microeconomics and the heterodox analysis of social provisioning Part I addresses the importance of history theory research methods and institutions in the making of the identity of heterodox economics as an alternative to mainstream economics Part II delves into heterodox microeconomic theories in particular investment pricing competition markets and market governance as foundations of heterodox macroeconomic analyses Part III expands the analysis of the capitalist social provisioning process with an emphasis on its subsystems and their relationships over historical time Part IV encapsulates the life and work of Frederic S Lee Throughout his intellectual life Frederic S Lee has shown to many that the development of heterodox economics is rendered possible by unselfish and ceaseless efforts to build both theory and institutions Essays in this book attest that establishing an alternative critical theory to the status quo is not only possible but also serviceable to the majority of the population

Australian Economic Papers ,1985 Teaching Post Keynesian Economics Jesper Jespersen,Mogens Ove Madsen,2013-01-01 This book contends that post Keynesian economics has its own methodological and didactic basis and its realistic analysis is much needed in the current economic and financial crisis At a time when the original message of Keynes General Theory is no longer present in the most university syllabuses this book celebrates the uniqueness of teaching post Keynesian economics providing comparisons with traditional economic rationale and illustrating the advantages of post Keynesian pedagogy Against a backdrop in which neo classical textbooks prevail the expert contributors demonstrate that Keynes and The General Theory possess indispensable insight that would furnish students with a clearer understanding of the world economy in which they live They explore the teaching of post Keynesian economics from a number of different perspectives covering topics such as open system theorizing pluralism in teaching rhetoric in the spirit of Keynes uncertainty expectations and money A critique of mainstream and traditional economic textbooks is also provided This highly unique and fascinating book will provide an invaluable reference tool for teachers and researchers in post Keynesian economics as well as their students

Keynes' Economics (Routledge Revivals) Tony Lawson,Hashem Pesaran,2009-07-15 First published in 1985 this title includes contributions from leading economists and addresses many seminal aspects of Keynes work and methods This revival will be of particular interest to lecturers and advanced students of economics
