Madame Chiang Kai-shek Laura Tyson Li, 2018-11-20 The first biography of one of the most controversial and fascinating women of the twentieth century Beautiful brilliant and captivating Madame Chiang Kai shek seized unprecedented power during China's long and violent civil war She passionately argued against Chinese Communism in the international arena and influenced decades of Sino American relations and modern Chinese history Raised in one of China's most powerful families and educated at Wellesley College Soong Mayling went on to become wife chief adviser interpreter and propagandist to Nationalist leader Generalissimo Chiang Kai shek She sparred with international leaders like Churchill and Roosevelt and impressed Westerners and Chinese alike with her acumen charm and glamour But she was also decried as a manipulative Dragon Lady and despised for living in American style splendor while Chinese citizens suffered under her husband's brutal oppression The result of years of extensive research in the United States and abroad and written with access to previously classified CIA and diplomatic files Madame Chiang Kai shek objectively evaluates one of the most powerful and fascinating women of the twentieth century Li brilliantly analyzes a fearless and profoundly conflicted woman of extraordinary force Booklist      The International Who's Who of Women 2002 Elizabeth Sleeman, 2001 Over 5 500 detailed biographies of the most eminent talented and distinguished women in the world today      Madame Chiang Kai-shek and Miss Emma Mills Thomas A. DeLong, 2007-03-14 Mayling Soong came to America at the age of 10 Her father Charlie Soong a practicing Christian who had spent time in America was convinced that China's youth would need progressive Western educations before returning to their homeland to take their places as leaders in the fields of government education and engineering The youngest of three daughters Mayling followed her older siblings to the United States in search of a Western education eventually entering Wellesley in 1913 at age 16 Here she made numerous friends including classmate Emma DeLong Mills This lifelong friendship lasted through Mayling's 1927 marriage to General Chiang Kai shek and his subsequent rise to power After the undeclared Sino Japanese war broke out Emma began a series of letters detailing the political climate in the isolationist United States providing Mayling with invaluable insight into American attitudes regarding China and her Asian neighbors Beginning with the early days of their friendship in America the volume describes the identity struggle both women faced following their 1917 graduation from Wellesley Following Emma's visit to China and somewhat unwilling return to New York the friendship continued through their correspondence Emma's role in the newly organized American Bureau of Medical Aid to China is discussed as are Madame Chiang Kai shek's international fund raising efforts on behalf of Chinese war relief While military and political history is not the focus of the work it is portrayed as it impacts the friendship which is the subject of this book     An Annotated Bibliography of Selected Works about Republic of China Karen Siu-chu Lee,1981     LIFE ,1952-10-13 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today s people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use     Congressional Record United States. Congress,1970 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873     China at War Hans van de Ven,2017-08-24 China s War of Resistance against Japan as WWII is known in China was never about the defeat of Japan alone China was also at war with itself Between 1937 and 1949 a vicious revolutionary war between Nationalists and Communists divided by radically different views about China s future ravaged the country killing millions and laying waste to cities and the countryside The outcomes of these wars have shaped the country and the world since China at War focuses on this period examining the complex truth behind the propaganda of both East and West Cambridge professor Hans van de Ven shows how the results of the fighting ended European imperialism in East Asia restored China to its traditional position of regional centrality and gave the USA a decisive role in East Asian politics In the process he argues it also triggered profound changes in warfare as important as the development of atomic weapons and gave the countryside a new social political and military significance Through fascinating personal accounts and extensive scholarship China at War casts new light on this crucial period of history and harnesses contemporary art culture and ideology to illuminate world changing events     China at War ,1941 Includes selections from the daily bulletins of the China Information Committee     Where Chiang Kai-shek Lost China Harold M. Tanner,2015-08-10 A masterful contribution not simply to the history of the civil war but also to the history of 20th century China Steven I Levine author Anvil of Victory The Communist Revolution in Manchuria 1945 1948 The civil war in China that ended in the 1949 victory of Mao Zedong s Communist forces was a major blow to U S interests in the Far East and led to heated recriminations about how China was lost Despite their significance there have been few studies in English of the war s major campaigns The Liao Shen Campaign was the final act in the struggle for control of China s northeast After the Soviet defeat of Japan in Manchuria Communist Chinese and then Nationalist troops moved into this strategically important area China s largest industrial base and a major source of coal Manchuria had extensive railways and key ports both still under Soviet control When American mediation over control of Manchuria failed full scale civil war broke out By spring of 1946 Chiang Kai shek s Nationalist armies had occupied most of the southern economically developed part of Manchuria pushing Communist forces north of the Songhua Sungari River But over the next two years the tide would turn The Communists isolated the Nationalist armies and mounted a major campaign aimed at destroying the Kuomintang forces This is the story of that campaign and its outcome which were to have such far reaching consequences Where Chiang Kai shek Lost China is more than a fluidly written battle narrative or operational history By tapping an impressive array of archival materials published document collections and memoirs Harold Tanner has put the Liao Shen Campaign in the larger context of the Chinese Civil War and significantly advanced our understanding of the military history of modern China Michigan War Studies Review

School Life ,1945 On Gold Mountain Lisa See,2014-08-20 From the bestselling author of The Island of Sea Women here is the true story of the one hundred year odyssey of the author s Chinese American family combining years of research with fascinating family anecdotes imaginative details and the historical details of immigrant life Amy Tan bestselling author of The Joy Luck Club As engagingly readable as any novel Los Angeles Times Book Review In 1867 Lisa See's great great grandfather arrived in America where he prescribed herbal remedies to immigrant laborers who were treated little better than slaves. His son Fong See later built a mercantile empire and married a Caucasian woman in spite of laws prohibiting interracial marriage. Lisa herself grew up playing in her family's antiques store in Los Angeles's Chinatown, listening to stories of missionaries and prostitutes, movie stars and Chinese baseball teams. See's family history encompasses secret marriages, entrepreneurial genius, romance, racism, and much more as two distinctly different cultures meet in a new world in this lovingly rendered, vivid tableau of a family and an era.
