Madame Prime Minister A Life In Power And Politics:

Madame Prime Minister Emmeline Garnett,1967 Biography of the first woman prime minister of India Indira Gandhi whose father Jawaharlal Nehru had governed India from its independence to his death in 1964 Madam Prime Minister Gro Harlem Brundtland,2005-06-15 One of the world s leading woman politicians tells her inspiring story At forty one Gro Harlem Brundtland physician and mother of four was appointed prime minister of Norway the youngest person and the first woman ever to hold that office In this refreshingly forthright memoir Brundtland traces her unusual and meteoric career She grew up with strong role models her parents were active in the Norwegian resistance and involved in postwar politics She became known as a pro choice crusader in the seventies and entered politics as the minister of the environment She appointed eight women to her second eighteen member cabinet to this day a world record and was the leading figure in the process that led to the Earth Summit in Rio in 1992 As director general of the World Health Organization since 1997 Brundtland is the first woman elected to run a major UN institution Along the way she met a host of international politicians including Margaret Thatcher who did not share Brundtland s view on feminism Mikhail Gorbachev Nelson Mandela Ronald Reagan and Hillary Clinton Brundtland writes candidly and with humor about raising children in the political limelight and about dealing with political opposition and stereotypes about women Hers is a fascinating story of one person s ability to make a difference globally Women as Political Leaders Michael A. Genovese,Janie S. Steckenrider,2013-09-02 Over the past several years the fields of Leadership Studies and of Women s Studies have grown tremendously This book which is a series of case studies of women who have headed governments across the globe will discuss the conditions and situations under which women rose to power and give a brief biography of each woman A special chapter on why no U S woman has risen to the top and a review of the political campaigns of Hillary Clinton Michele Bachmann and others will be included This book will be of interest for courses in women and leadership global politics and gender studies Comparative Political Leadership Ludger Helms,2012-07-25 This volume has been designed as a key resource in the field of international political leadership research Written by a team of distinguished leadership scholars from three continents and nine countries the original chapters gathered in this volume cover all the major fields of political leadership from executive legislative and party leadership to leadership in social movements and international organizations The special value and appeal of this book relates to its genuinely comparative focus that characterizes all chapters An Analysis of The Brundtland Commission's Our Common Future Ksenia Gerasimova,2017-07-05 Our Common Future is a joint work produced in 1987 by a United Nations commission headed by former Norwegian Prime Minister Gro Brundtland Also known as The Brundtland Report it offers a classic approach to problem solving by first asking a productive question How do we protect the world we live in for future generations while at the same time stimulating economic and social development right now The solution the work proposes is sustainable development defined in the report as humanity s ability to ensure that it meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs The key conclusion the report came to that we need long term strategies to manage the earth s natural resources proved to be so universally welcomed it introduced the term sustainability into the everyday language of international politics Solving the problem of workable sustainable development became a hot topic leading to the birth of a new academic discipline environmental economics The book offered a solution to the problem of ensuring sustainable development by highlighting the critical importance of international cooperation
