irresponsible spinner of laughs In Crooked but Never Common Stuart Klawans combines a critic's insight and a fan's enthusiasm to offer deeper ways to think about and enjoy Sturges's work He provides an in-depth appreciation of all ten of the writer-director's major movies presenting Sturges as a filmmaker whose work balanced slapstick and social critique American and European traditions and cynicism and affection for his characters Tugging at loose threads discontinuities puzzles and allusions that have dangled in plain sight and putting the films into a broader cultural context Klawans reveals structures motives and meanings underlying the uproarious pleasures of Sturges's movies In this new light Sturges emerges at last as one of the truly great filmmakers and funnier than ever Class Unknown Mark Pittenger, 2012-08-13 Since the Gilded Age social scientists middle class reformers and writers have left the comforts of their offices to pass as steel workers coal miners assembly line laborers waitresses hoboes and other working and poor people in an attempt to gain a fuller and more authentic understanding of the lives of the working class and the poor In this first sweeping study of undercover investigations of work and poverty in America award-winning historian Mark Pittenger examines how intellectuals were shaped by their experiences with the poor and how despite their sympathy toward working class people they unintentionally helped to develop the contemporary concept of a degraded and other American underclass While contributing to our understanding of the history of American social thought Class Unknown offers a new perspective on contemporary debates over how we understand and represent our own society and its class divisions Jerome Robbins Deborah Jowitt, Jerome Robbins, 2004 Chronicles the life of American ballet choreographer Jerome Robbins discussing his career and private life his Russian Jewish heritage and his impact on dance and theater Five Came Back Mark Harris, 2015-02-24 One of The Hollywood Reporter's 100 Greatest Film Books of All Time One of the great works of film history of the decade Slate Now a Netflix original documentary series also written by Mark Harris the extraordinary wartime experience of five of Hollywood's most important directors all of whom put their stamp on World War II and were changed by it forever Here is the remarkable untold story of how five major Hollywood directors John Ford George Stevens John Huston William Wyler and Frank Capra changed World War II and how in turn the war changed them In a move unheard of at the time the U.S. government farmed out its war propaganda effort to Hollywood allowing these directors the freedom to film in combat zones as never before They were on the scene at almost every major moment of America's war shaping the public's collective consciousness of what we've now come to call the good fight The product of five years of scrupulous archival research Five Came Back provides a revelatory new understanding of Hollywood's role in the war through the life and work of these five men who chose to go and who came back The Palm Beach Story John Pym, 2019-07-25 Working for Paramount in the 1940s playwright and scriptwriter Preston Sturges directed a succession of exceptional comedies of which the Palm Beach Story is perhaps the finest Pym's account recreates the subtlety and a dazzling energy of this near-perfect film In the BFI FILM CLASSICS series Christmas in July Diane Jacobs, 2023-11-15 In this first critical biography of Preston Sturges Diane Jacobs brings to life the great comic filmmaker whose career Andrew Sarris described as one of the most brilliant and bizarre bursts of creation in the history of the American cinema Jacobs uses letters and manuscripts never before revealed as well as interviews with people who knew Sturges including three of his wives to portray this fascinating contradictory man In addition to discussing his major films she also examines heretofore unknown work and shows that Sturges was highly creative even near the end of his life a time when many believed he had lost his touch Sturges secured his place in film history as the creator of such classic films as The Lady Eve Sullivan's Travels and The Palm Beach Story In 1939 he became the first screenwriter to win the right to direct his own script the result was the Oscar winning The Great McGinty Creator of Unfaithfully Yours The Miracle of Morgan's Creek and Hail the Conquering Hero he was the third highest paid man in the United States by the late 1940s He owned a swank Hollywood restaurant and was known as an ebullient raconteur as well as a world famous filmmaker A little over a decade later Sturges died in New York impoverished and rejected by Hollywood The euphoria of success the fitfulness of luck the promise and poignancy of the American Dream the themes of Sturges's work also marked the man Diane Jacobs achieves a singular success in illuminating his extraordinary life This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1992 Born to Be Hurt Sam Staggs, 2024-06-04 In a passionate and witty behind the scenes expose the author of All About Eve takes on the classic 1959 Douglas Sirk film starring Lana Turner Few films inspire the devotion of Imitation of Life one of the most popular films of the 50s a split personality drama that's both an irresistible women's picture and a dark commentary on ambition motherhood racial identity and hope lost and found Born to be Hurt is the first in depth account of director Sirk's masterpiece Lana Turner on the brink of personal and professional ruin starred as Lora Meredith African American actress Juanita Moore played her servant and dearest friend and Sandra Dee and Susan Kohner their respective daughters caught up in the heartbreak of the black passing for white daughter in the 1950s Both Moore and Kohner were Oscar nominated as Best Supporting Actress Sam Staggs combines vast research extensive interviews with surviving cast members and superb storytelling into a masterpiece of film writing Entertaining saucy and incisive this is irresistible reading for every film fan
