"Maddie" Mary Kresge,2009-11-14 We all have our inner child within us Madeline Elsworth is a fifty eight year old social worker whose life and her familys lives are affected by her lost inner child Maddie The fourth fifth and sixth years of her childhood are missing Until she locates Maddie and lives those three years with her Madeline can It be a whole person Madeline lives in California as the woman she thinks she should be an educated stable wife of a surgeon and mother of two adult daughters Shes an actress going through her role of life As she grows older reality is becoming too frightening so shes withdrawing and becoming more dependent on her family instead of being a participating member Madeline believes her mother passed away during her childhood When she learns her mother has just recently died she is forced to return alone to her childhood environment in Pennsylvania to find her lost childhood years As Maddie begins to appear Madeline chooses to be in denial and doesnt want to leave her safe place so she sees Maddie as a very happy child and her childhood as a happy one As Maddie continues appear inq to her she starts seeing things she doesn It want to acknowledge Madeline keeps running away to her migraine headaches and Codeine to lessen her discomfort But Madeline begins to feel love for Maddie and wants to defend and protect her With the help of her old friend and psychiatrist Doctor Bob she starts trusting Maddie and wants to know her better As a result Maddie developes a need for Madeline to help her and opens up to her Maddie slowly reveals her fears and horror she had suffered during those lost three years With the support of the caring new people Madeline meets in her old hometown and her growing concern for Maddie she finds new strength to help her inner child Theres the friendly mortician who had known Maddie theres the Ott family who gives support theres Uncle Arthur who shares Maddies mothers younger years with her maternal grandparents theres the attorney who fills in the blanks in her memory of her father and paternal grandparents and then there are the memories of a sweet loving Down s Syndrome boy whose love and devotion had helped Maddie survive Madeline lives through Maddie's fourth, fifth, and sixth years with her and helps her inner child cope with each horrific episode she had encountered. As Madeline holds her hand and walks by her side through those years, Maddie develops the courage to take Madeline back to the terror-filled events of her childhood. Madeline sees the abuse by her schizophrenic mother, the absence of her loving father, the taunting and bullying by a neighborhood boy, the feeling of loneliness, facing the deaths of loved ones, and finally almost her own death. As Maddie conquers her fears, she no longer needs to hide within Madeline's psyche. Madeline experiences a beautiful feeling of freedom, freedom from the fear of devastating emotional pain. She emerges as the confident, self-loving woman she wants to be. She can now love her family and others with the deep, trusting love she could never allow. She becomes a whole person. The Reform Advocate, 1925 The Friendly Banker Richard Baughman, 1999 Credit cards can be as hazardous to your financial health as cigarettes are to your lungs, says Richard Baughman, and credit card companies will lure you in and keep you hooked more effectively than Joe Camel. During nearly thirty years as a loan officer at a number of Canadian banks and trust companies, Richard Baughman handled over 50,000 credit applications, and he learned that most people put less thought into shopping for a loan than they do into shopping for shoes. Naively believing that customer loyalty carries weight with the banks or that credit reports are clean just because payments are on time, can set you up to be one of the millions of

Canadians who will retire into poverty. Michigan History George Newman Fuller, Lewis Beeson, 1972 Architect and Engineer of California, 1915 What Comes of Dreams Sarah Robinson, 2019-01-21 Madeline Chambers lives the life she always wanted, that of a successful writer, until a highway accident in Virginia changes her in a way she never could have imagined. Waking in the hospital, Madeline begins having terrible nightmares of a child crying, being chased down a hallway, and eventually being strangled and pushed down stairs. She soon realizes her dreams are not her own but that of her hospital roommate. Suddenly being able to see the subconscious fears and desires of people in her life terrifies Madeline. She moves to the small, remote town of Suffolk, Vermont, in the hopes that her seclusion will provide relief from the invasive dreams. She also hopes to reinvigorate her creativity. She soon meets Sam, a hearty New England woman and neighbor who becomes her friend. She also meets Drew, Sam's son, and the sheriff of their quiet town, who quickly charms his way into her life. Anthony is a former student of Sam's who has returned to Suffolk looking for work after many years away in Boston, but Drew is immediately suspicious. Anthony's motives for being home again don't make sense, and after several disturbing dreams, Madeline is horrified to learn Anthony's presence in her peaceful town is a dangerous threat. Madeline sought the quiet, but now she gets anything but as her dreams lead her further into darkness and possibly death. Michigan History, 1972
