Fiction Ilany Kogan, 2020-04-01 This book has grown from a belief that the psychoanalytic exploration of literature and performances leads to a richer and fuller understanding of each individual's internal reality It includes an exploration of narcissistic fantasies from various protagonists of film and novels and focuses on the fantasy of the omnipotence of the self which is a predominantly narcissistic desire to be a Master of the Universe a deity an omnipotent immortal figure Psychoanalysis and art interact in exploring the individual's refusal to give up grandiose fantasies about the self or his inability to modulate and integrate them within his personality which are at the origin of his wish to transcend the human condition These narcissistic fantasies are often expressed through aggressive and self destructive behaviour including flirtation with death and destruction The emotional truth that great artists convey through symbols which often resonates in the audience is examined in this book through studies and comparisons of narcissistic characters in opera film and contemporary fiction Identifying with these figures who place themselves above the law may give us the illusion of omnipotence and immortality which corresponds to a primary narcissistic fantasy the traces of which exist in various degrees in all of us Part of the popular International Psychoanalytical Association Psychoanalytic Ideas and Applications Series this book is unique in its focus on the narcissistic fantasy of the omnipotence of the self by means of an analysis of a variety of protagonists from the worlds of the performing arts and literature and on the exploration of their impact on the audience It will be of interest to psychoanalysts therapists and those with an interest in the intersection of psychoanalytic theory with film and literature

The Victorian Geopolitical Aesthetic Lauren M. E. Goodlad, 2015 How did realist fiction alter in the effort to craft forms and genres receptive to the dynamism of an expanding empire and globalizing world Do these nineteenth century variations on the geopolitical aesthetic continue to resonate today Crossing literary criticism political theory and longue dur e history The Victorian Geopolitical Aesthetic explores these questions from the standpoint of nineteenth century novelists such as Wilkie Collins George Eliot Gustave Flaubert and Anthony Trollope as well as successors including E M Forster and the creators of recent television serials By looking at the category of sovereignty at multiple scales and in diverse contexts Lauren M E Goodlad shows that the ideological crucible for high realism was not a hegemonic liberalism It was rather a clash of modern liberal ideals struggling to disintegrate themselves from a powerful conservative vision of empire while striving to negotiate the inequalities of power which a supposedly universalistic liberalism had helped to generate The material occasion for the Victorian era s rich realist experiments was the long transition from an informal empire of trade that could be celebrated as liberal to a neo feudal imperialism that only Tories could warmly embrace The book places realism s geopolitical aesthetic at the heart of recurring modern experiences of breached sovereignty forgotten history and subjective exile The Coda titled The Way We Historicize Now concludes the study with connections to recent debates about surface reading distant reading and the hermeneutics of suspicion
