The New Pastoral in Contemporary British Writing Deborah Lilley, 2019-10-10 This book identifies a major turn in contemporary British literature in response to environmental crisis It argues that the pastoral is emerging as a new critical framework in which to explore the understanding of people and place in this context The New Pastoral in Contemporary British Writing explores how the pastoral tradition has transformed as authors respond to our changing relationships with place in this period Analysing the features common to new pastoral writing it brings together a corpus of works from major authors including Ali Smith Jim Crace John Burnside Kathleen Jamie and Robert Macfarlane This book argues that crises such as pollution and climate change have shifted our understandings of the key relationships of pastoral and the terms upon which they are based giving new senses to its older oppositions between the human and the natural the urban and the rural and the past and the present Furthermore it shows that the versions of pastoral that ensue align with current ecocritical arguments produced by thinking through the individual cultural and ecological implications of environmental crisis As a result pastoral emerges as the crucial strategy in the re imagining of the environment underway in contemporary British writing the resurgence of interest in nature writing the increasing attention towards place in literary fiction and the development of ecological or climate fiction This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of English as well as those concerned with the interdisciplinary topics of the environmental humanities including literary geographies new nature writing cultures of climate change and the Anthropocene and ecologically oriented theory National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine \(U.S.\),1989 Race in American Literature and Culture John Ernest,2022-06-16 The book shows how American racial history and culture have shaped and been shaped in turn by American literature Over her dead body Elisabeth Bronfen,2017-06-01 In 1846 Edgar Allen Poe wrote that the death of a beautiful woman is unquestionably the most poetic topic in the world The conjunction of death art and femininity forms a rich and disturbing strata of Western culture explored here in fascinating detail by Elisabeth Bronfen Her examples range from Carmen to Little Nell from Wuthering Heights to Vertigo from Snow White to Frankenstein The text is richly illustrated throughout with thirty seven paintings and photographs Capturing the Beat Moment Erik Mortenson,2010-11-02 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Examining the moment as one of the primary motifs of Beat writing Erik Mortenson offers the first book to investigate immediacy and its presence and importance in Beat writing Capturing the Beat Moment Cultural Politics and the Poetics of Presence places an expanded canon of Beat writers in an early postmodern context that highlights their importance in American poetics and provides an account of Beat practices that reveal how gender and race affect Beat politics of the moment Mortenson argues that Beat writers focused on action desire and spontaneity to establish an authentic connection to the world around them and believed that living in the moment was the only way in which they might establish the kind of life that led to good writing With this in mind he explores the possibility that far from being the antithesis of their times the Beats actually were a product of them Mortenson outlines the effects of gender and race on Beat writing in the postwar years as well as the Beats attempts to break free of the constrictive notions of time and space prevalent during the 1950s Mortenson discusses such topics as the importance of personal visionary experiences the embodiment of sexuality and the moment of ecstasy in Beat writing how the Beats used photographs to evoke the past and the ways that Beat culture was designed to offer alternatives to existing political and social structures Throughout the volume Mortenson moves beyond the Kerouac Ginsberg Burroughs triumvirate commonly associated with Beat literature discussing women such as Diane di Prima Janine Pommy Vega and Joyce Johnson and African American writers including Bob Kaufman and Amiri Baraka With the inclusion of these authors comes a richer understanding of the Beat writers value and influence in American literary history Mapping Appetite Pere Gallardo-Torrano,Jopi Nyman,2009-03-26 As recent years have witnessed a strong interest in the cultural representation of the culinary ranging from analyses of food representation in film and literature to cultural readings of recipes menus national cuisines and celebrity chefs the study of food narratives amidst contemporary consumer culture has become increasingly more important This book seeks to respond to the challenge by presenting a series of case studies dealing with the representation of food and the culinary in a variety of cultural texts including post colonial and popular fiction women s magazines and food writing The contributors to the first part of the volume explore the various functions of food in post colonial writing ranging from Salman Rushdie and Anita Desai to Zadie Smith and Maggie Gee in the context of globalization and multiculturalism In the second part of the volume the focus is on two genres of popular fiction the romantic novel and science fiction While the romantic novels of Joanne Harris for instance link food and cooking with female empowerment in science fiction food is connected with power and technology The essays in the third part of the book explore the role of food in travel writing women s magazines and African American cookery books showing how issues of gender nation and race are present in food narratives
