Trolling Before the Internet David Rudrum, 2024-11-14 Trolling began long before the internet This accessible history traces the ancestry of its textual and rhetorical strategies by looking at literature from ancient Greece to the 1980s Trolling is the most controversial genre of writing to have risen to prominence in the 21st century with far reaching consequences for its writers and readers alike But it is too often regarded as a technological problem confined to the internet This book takes a very different approach it regards trolling as a cultural problem with a long and venerable literary history Taking in the contrarianism of Lord Byron the wit of Oscar Wilde insult trading in Shakespeare Jonathan Swift's disaster trolling Martin Luther's dissemination of heresy through a public discussion forum the grotesquely misogynistic abuse hurled in Archilochus's poetry the taunting provocations of avant garde manifestos and not forgetting public humiliations in Beowulf David Rudrum demonstrates that trolls rhetorical shenanigans are neither new nor unvanquishable The Oxford Handbook of Modern

Pender, 2012-04-02 An in depth study of early modern women's modesty rhetoric from the English Reformation to the Restoration This book provides new readings of modesty's gendered deployment in the works of Anne Askew Katharine Parr Mary Sidney Aemilia Lanyer and Anne Bradstreet Modern Sentimentalism Lisa Mendelman, 2019-12-17 Modern Sentimentalism examines how American female novelists reinvented sentimentalism in the modernist period Just as the birth of the modern woman has long been imagined as the death of sentimental feeling modernist literary innovation has been understood to reject sentimental aesthetics Modern Sentimentalism reframes these perceptions of cultural evolution Taking up icons such as the New Woman the flapper the free lover the New Negro woman and the divorcee this book argues that these figures embody aspects of a traditional sentimentality while also recognizing sentiment as incompatible with ideals of modern selfhood These double binds equally beleaguer the protagonists and shape the styles of writers like Willa Cather Edith Wharton Anita Loos and Jessie Fauset Modern sentimentalism thus translates nineteenth century conventions of sincerity and emotional fulfillment into the skeptical self conscious modes of interwar cultural production Reading canonical and under examined novels in concert with legal briefs scientific treatises and other transatlantic period discourse and combining traditional and quantitative methods of archival research Modern Sentimentalism demonstrates that feminine feeling far from being peripheral to twentieth century modernism animates its central principles and preoccupations

The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg, 2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O'Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg's annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg's detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets Blue Studios Rachel Blau

DuPlessis, 2006-09-03 Publisher description Modernism Astradur Eysteinnsson, Vivian Liska, 2007-10-04 The two volume work Modernism has been awarded the prestigious 2008 MSA Book Prize Modernism has constituted one of the most prominent fields of literary studies for decades While it was perhaps temporarily overshadowed by postmodernism recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in modernism on both sides of the Atlantic These volumes respond to a need for a collective and multifarious view of literary modernism in various genres locations and languages Asking and responding to a wealth of theoretical aesthetic and historical questions 65 scholars from several countries test the usefulness of the concept of modernism as they probe a variety of contexts from individual texts to national literatures from specific critical issues to broad cross cultural concerns While the chief emphasis of these volumes is on literary modernism literature is seen as entering into diverse cultural and social contexts These range from inter art conjunctions to philosophical environmental urban and political domains including issues of race and space gender and fashion popular culture and trauma science and exile all of which have an urgent bearing on the poetics of modernity Legitimizing the Artist Luca Somigli, 2003-12-15 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the production of literary and cultural manifestoes enjoyed a veritable boom and accompanied the rise of many avant garde movements Legitimizing the Artist considers this phenomenon as a response to a more general crisis of legitimation that artists had been struggling with for decades The crucial question for artists confronted by the conservative values of the dominant bourgeoisie and the economic logic of triumphant capitalism was how to justify their work in terms that did not reduce art to a mere commodity In this work Luca Somigli discusses several European artistic movements decadentism Italian futurism vorticism and imagism and argues for the centrality of the works of F T Marinetti in the transition from a fin de siècle decadent poetics exemplified by the manifestoes of Anatole Baju to a properly avant garde project aiming at a complete renewal of the process of literary communication and the abolition of the difference between producer and consumer. It is to this challenge that the English avant garde artists and Ezra Pound in particular responded with their more polemical pieces. Somigli suggests that this debate allows us to rethink the relationship between modernism and post modernism as complementary ways of engaging the loss of an organic relationship between the artist and his social environment.
