embraces Hebrews from start to finish The author of Hebrews encourages his audience to hold on to the letter he has written to them as the word of the encouragement Heb 13 22 In a very carefully concerted and masterfully artistic way the letter persistently encourages the members of its audience with regard to their worship Indeed Hebrews was intended to be presented orally in a public performance as a liturgical or homiletic letter an act of worship in itself heard by its audience gathered together as a worshipping assembly Hebrews exhorts the members of its audience not only with regard to their liturgical worship in which they engage during their communal gatherings but also with regard to their ethical or moral worship in which they engage by the way they conduct themselves outside of their communal gatherings This close examination of Hebrews through the lens of worship is intended to inform and enrich the worship of Christians today Hebrews presents important and unique points about worship not found in any other New Testament writing The goal is to illustrate and illuminate these points for the benefit of those who desire to deepen their worship as Christians by deepening their understanding of the magnificent literary masterpiece that the poetically lively letter to the Hebrews articulates for all Christians
