Rock Criticism from the Beginning Ulf Lindberg, 2005 Rock Criticism from the Beginning is a wide ranging exploration of the rise and development of rock criticism in Britain and the United States from the 1960s to the present It chronicles the evolution of a new form of journalism and the course by which writing on rock was transformed into a respected field of cultural production The authors explore the establishment of magazines from Crawdaddy and Rolling Stone to The Source and from Melody Maker and New Musical Express to The Wire while investigating the careers of well known music critics like Robert Christgau Greil Marcus and Lester Bangs in the U S and Nik Cohn Paul Morley and Jon Savage in the U K to name just a few While much has been written on the history of rock this Bourdieu inspired book is the first to offer a look at the coming of age of rock journalism and the critics that opened up a whole new kind of discourse on popular music

The Birth of Cool Carol Tulloch, 2016-01-28 It is broadly recognized that black style had a clear and profound influence on the history of dress in the twentieth century with black culture and fashion having long been defined as cool Yet despite this high profile in depth explorations of the culture and history of style and dress in the African diaspora are a relatively recent area of enquiry The Birth of Cool asserts that cool is seen as an arbiter of presence and relates how both iconic and ordinary black individuals and groups have marked out their lives through the styling of their bodies Focusing on counter and sub cultural contexts this book investigates the role of dress in the creation and assertion of black identity From the gardenia corsage worn by Billie Holiday to the work wear of female African Jamaican market traders through to the home dressmaking of black Britons in the 1960s and the meaning of a polo neck jumper as depicted in a 1934 self portrait by African American artist Malvin Gray Johnson this study looks at the ways in which the diaspora experience is expressed through self image Spanning the late nineteenth century to the modern day the book draws on ready made and homemade fashion photographs paintings and films published and unpublished biographies and letters from Britain Jamaica South Africa and the United States to consider how personal style statements reflect issues of racial and cultural difference The Birth of Cool is a powerful exploration of how style and dress both initiate and confirm change and the ways in which they expresses identity and resistance in black culture Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1988-07 From the Elephant's Back Lawrence Durrell,2015-03-06 Thirty eight rare out of print or previously unpublished essays and letters by Lawrence Durrell with scholarly introduction The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 A Companion to the Anthropology of American Indians Thomas Biolsi,2008-03-10 This Companion is comprised of 27 original contributions by leading scholars in the field and summarizes the state of anthropological knowledge of Indian peoples as well as the history that got us to this point Surveys the full range of American Indian anthropology from ecological and political economic questions to topics concerning religion language and expressive culture Each chapter provides definitive coverage of its topic as well as situating ethnographic and ethnohistorical data into larger frameworks Explores anthropology s contribution to knowledge its historic and ongoing complicities with colonialism and its political and ethical obligations toward the people studied Perversions of Justice Ward Churchill,2003 Examines the faulty reasoning employed to legislate colonial control over North America s indigenous peoples and their lands Lost Beyond Telling Richard Howard Stamelman,1990 In seeking to give voice to absent things or lost experiences Richard Stamelman says modern poetry attempts to give absence a shape Loss in his view is both the cause and the subject of the modern poem Fittingly in Lost beyond Telling he formulates and develops what he calls a poetics of loss with which he frames his treatment of modern French poetry Abstraction and the Holocaust Mark Godfrey,2007-01-01 Mark Godfrey looks closely at a series of American art and architectural projects that respond to the memory of the Holocaust He investigates how abstract artists and architects have negotiated Holocaust memory without representing the Holocaust figuratively or symbolically
