My Dog Tulip:

My Dog Tulip Joe Randolph Ackerley, 1999 First published in Great Britain by Secker Warburg 1956 T p verso My Dog Tulip J. R. Ackerley, 2011-11-30 Heartwarming and profound this account of one writer's relationship with his beloved German Shepherd is one of the bonafide dog lit classics New Yorker The distinguished British man of letters J R Ackerley hardly thought of himself as a dog lover when well into middle age he came into possession of a German Shepherd To his surprise she turned out to be the love of his life the ideal friend he had been searching for in vain for years My Dog Tulip is a bittersweet retrospective account of their sixteen year companionship as well as a profound and subtle meditation on the strangeness that lies at the heart of all relationships In vivid and sometimes startling detail Ackerley tells of Tulip's often erratic behavior and very canine tastes and of his own fumbling but determined efforts to ensure for her an existence of perfect happiness My Dog Tulip was adapted for the screen as a major animated feature film with a cast that includes the voices of Christopher Plummer Lynn Redgrave and Isabella Rossellini Heralded as a stroke of genius by New York Magazine and the love story of the year by Vanity Fair it is a masterpiece of animal literature that is sure to touch the hearts of anyone who has found companionship with their own four legged friend My Dog Tulip, 2011 My Dog Tulip Joe Randolph Ackerley, 1956 Loiterature Ross Chambers, 1999-01-01 The fabric of the western literary tradition is not always predictable In one wayward strand waywardness itself is at work delay becomes almost predictable triviality is auspicious and failure is cheerfully admired This is loiterature Loiterature is the first book to identify this strand to follow its path through major works and genres and to evaluate its literary significance By offering subtle resistance to the laws of good social order loiterly literature blurs the distinctions between innocent pleasure and harmless relaxation on the one hand and not so innocent intent on the other The result is covert social criticism that casts doubt on the values good citizens hold dear values like discipline organization productivity and above all work It levels this criticism however under the guise of innocent wit or harmless entertainment Loiterature distracts attention the way a street conjurer diverts us with his sleight of hand If the pleasurable has critical potential may not one of the functions of the critical be to produce pleasure The ability to digress Ross Chambers suggests is at the heart of both and loiterature's digressive waywardness offers something to ponder for critics of culture as well as lovers of literature Polymorphous Domesticities Juliana Schiesari, 2012-03-06 Polymorphous Domesticities maps out the play of gender sexuality and alternative forms of domesticity in the works of four modern European and American writers Edith Wharton Djuna Barnes Colette and J R Ackerley What these four writers have in common is a defiance of patriarchal paradigms in their lives as well as in their works Not only did they live outside the norms of the heterosexual family unit they also pursued and wrote about alternative lifestyles that prominently involved animals Through close readings from a feminist perspective Juliana Schiesari reconfigures the ways in which interspecies relationships inflect domestic spheres reading the Other through the lens of gender home and family As she explores how domestic life is refigured by the presence of animals Schiesari challenges anthropocentric frames of reference and brings the very definition of human into question On Dogs ,2019-11-05 Calling all dog lovers On Dogs collects essays about man s best friend by Charles Dickens Vita Sackville West Brigitte Bardot and Shakespeare among others with an introduction by acclaimed actor comedian and adopter of strays Tracey Ullman Dogs throughout history have enjoyed a special relationship with humankind and our favorite four legged creatures continue to grow in popularity The writers and poets collected within this anthology reflect on the joys and pitfalls of dog ownership with brilliant wit insight and affection With a heartfelt and humorous introduction by Tracey Ullman an inveterate adopter of strays this illustrated anthology traces the canine s extraordinary journey from working animal to pampered pet Features six black and white dog photographs by acclaimed reportage and portrait photographer Rhian Ap Gruffydd Gruffpawtraits Canis Modernis Karalyn

Kendall-Morwick,2020-12-22 Modernist literature might well be accused of going to the dogs From the strays wandering the streets of Dublin in James Joyce s Ulysses to the highbred canine subject of Virginia Woolf s Flush dogs populate a range of modernist texts In many ways the dog in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries became a potent symbol of the modern condition facing like the human species the problem of adapting to modernizing forces that relentlessly outpaced it Yet the dog in literary modernism does not function as a stand in for the human In this book Karalyn Kendall Morwick examines the human dog relationship in modernist works by Virginia Woolf Jack London Albert Payson Terhune J R Ackerley and Samuel Beckett among others Drawing from the evolutionary theories of Charles Darwin and the scientific literary and philosophical work of Donna Haraway Temple Grandin and Carrie Rohman she makes a case for the dog as a coevolutionary and coadapting partner of humans As our coevolutionary partners dogs destabilize the human not the autonomous self transparent subject of Western humanism the human is instead contingent shaped by its material interactions with other species By demonstrating how modernist representations of dogs ultimately mongrelize the human this book reveals dogs status both as instigators of the crisis of the modern subject and as partners uniquely positioned to help humans adapt to the turbulent forces of modernization Accessibly written and convincingly argued this study shows how dogs challenge the autonomy of the human subject and the humanistic underpinnings of traditional literary forms It will find favor with students and scholars of modernist literature and animal studies Human, All Too Human Diana Fuss,2013-10-31 The question of what it means to be human has never before been more difficult and more contested The human with a complicated social history that his rarely been examined remains entrenched in traditional Enlightenment thinking Human All Too Human considers how we might radicalize our notion of the human Can the human be thought outside humanism Any rethinking of the human places us immediately inside an ever widening field of contrasting labels animate and inanimate natural and artificial living and dead organic and mechanistic These and other boundary confusions at the frontier of the human are the subject of this volume as each essay takes up one of three disputed border identities animals things or children Human All Too Human examines how we explain our interest in anthropomorphism and our fascination with species categorizations. Essays explore what we mean by things and how the integrity of the human may already be compromised by them. The nine essays in this volume all attempt to rethink the category of the human, challenging some of our most cherished cultural classifications. By inviting us to place the traditions subject of knowledge in the unsettling position of object, these writers interrogate the boundary distinctions that until now have exempted the human from the vigilant analysis it so urgently requires. Contributors: Nancy Armstrong, Rey Chow, Drucilla Cornell, Diana Fuss, Marjorie Garber, Barbara Johnson, Cora Kaplan, James Kincaid, Harriet Ritvo, David Willis. Animated Realism Judith Kriger, 2012. Unique insight into the techniques of Oscar-winning animated documentaries from some of the world's leading animators. For the Love of a Dog Patricia McConnell, Ph.D., 2009-07-22. The renowned author of The Other End of the Leash sheds new light on the emotional lives of animals. The Washington Post in this thoughtful and engaging exploration of man's best friend: "Compelling a wonderful blend of scientific knowledge, stories about real dogs and their behavior, and scenes from the author's life with her own dogs. For the Love of a Dog will make you think, but it will also touch your heart." Associated Press. For those of us who deeply cherish our dogs but are often baffled by their behavior, For the Love of a Dog is a revelation, offering dog owners everywhere a new understanding of the complex web of emotions that sometimes bind and other times damage our relationship with dogs. As animal behaviorist and zoologist Dr. Patricia McConnell tells us in this remarkable book, more and more scientists accept the premise that dogs have rich emotional lives, exhibiting a wide range of feelings including fear, anger, surprise, sadness, and love. McConnell suggests that dogs express emotions in ways similar to humans and shows us how to read the more subtle expressions hidden behind fuzzy faces and floppy ears. Those who consider their dogs part of the family will find For the Love of a Dog engaging, enlightening, and utterly engrossing. Packed with informed speculation and intriguing accounts of man's best friend at his worst and at his very best, this book is a treasure trove that will teach us how to have a richer, more rewarding relationship with our dogs. Post Sound Design John Avarese, 2017-06-29. Post Sound Design provides a practical introduction to the fascinating craft of editing and replacing dialog, creating Foley and sound effects, editing music, and balancing these elements to a final mix. Based on years of experience and teaching this material to students at Drexel University, award-winning film composer John Avarese offers user-friendly knowledge and stimulating exercises to help compose, story develop, characters, and create emotion through skillful creation of the sound track. Starting each chapter with a real-life example, the textbook is structured in such a way to create a fundamental understanding of the physics and the biological foundation of hearing and putting it into practice with suggested movie scenes demonstrating the discussed audio techniques. Post Sound Design engagingly demonstrates the individual areas essential to creating a soundtrack that will enhance any media production. Animal Stories Susan McHugh, 2011. How cross-species companionship is figured across a variety of media and why it matters. Marginal Men Piers Gray, 1991-06-18. In prose and poetry the selections contained here reveal the personal experiences feelings and angst of three English writers who lived through World War I

Creatural Fictions David Herman, 2016-04-08 This volume explores how twentieth and twenty first century literary texts engage with relationships between humans and other animals Written by forward thinking early career scholars as well as established experts in the field the chapters discuss key texts in the emergent canon of animal narratives including Franz Kafka's animal stories Yann Martel's The Life of Pi Zakes Mda's The Whale Caller and others The volume is divided into four main sections Two period focused sections center on modernism and on late twentieth and twenty first century fiction while two further sections foreground the more general project of theory building in literary animal studies examining interconnections among concepts of species sexuality gender and genre The volume also raises issues that extend beyond the academic community including ethical dimensions of human animal relationships and the problems of species loss and diminishing biodiversity

Manifestly Haraway Donna J. Haraway, 2016-04-01 Electrifying provocative and controversial when first published thirty years ago Donna Haraway's Cyborg Manifesto is even more relevant today when the divisions that she so eloquently challenges of human and machine but also of gender class race ethnicity sexuality and location are increasingly complex The subsequent Companion Species Manifesto which further questions the human nonhuman disjunction is no less urgently needed in our time of environmental crisis and profound polarization Manifestly Haraway brings together these momentous manifestos to expose the continuity and ramifying force of Haraway's thought whose significance emerges with engaging immediacy in a sustained conversation between the author and her long term friend and colleague Cary Wolfe Reading cyborgs and companion species through and with each other Haraway and Wolfe join in a wide ranging exchange on the history and meaning of the manifestos in the context of biopolitics feminism Marxism human nonhuman relationships making kin literary tropes material semiotics the negative way of knowing secular Catholicism and more The conversation ends by revealing the early stages of Haraway's Chthulucene Manifesto in tension with the teleologies of the doleful Anthropocene and the exterminationist Capitalocene Deeply dedicated to a diverse and robust earthly flourishing Manifestly Haraway promises to reignite needed discussion in and out of the academy about biologies technologies histories and still possible futures
