Appropriations for Fiscal Year 1994: Nondepartmental witnesses United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on VA-HUD-Independent Agencies,1994 Partnership in Space Ben Evans,2013-10-04 April 12 2011 was the 50th Anniversary of Yuri Gagarin s pioneering journey into space To commemorate this momentous achievement Springer Praxis has produced a mini series of books that reveals how humanity s knowledge of flying working and living in space has grown in the last half century Partners in Space focuses on the early to late 1990s a time in the post Soviet era when relations between East and West steadily though not without difficulty thawed and the foundations of real harmony and genuine co operation were laid for the first time with Shuttle Mir and the International Space Station This book

explores the events which preceded that new era including the political demise of Space Station Freedom and the consequences of the fall of the Soviet Union on a once proud human space program It traces the history of the Partnership through the often traumatic times of Shuttle Mir and closes on the eve of the launch of Zarya the first component of today's International Space Station NASA United States. General Accounting Office, 2001 Forum, 1996 U.S.-European Collaboration in Space Science European Science Foundation, National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Space Studies Board, Commission on Physical Sciences, Mathematics, and Applications, European Space Science Committee, Committee on International Space Programs, 1998-07-26 U S European Collaboration in Space Science reviews the past 30 years of space based research across the Atlantic The book which was prepared jointly with the European Space Science Committee under the aegis of the European Science Foundation begins with a broad survey of the historical and political context of U S European cooperation and collaboration in space The focus of the book is a set of 13 U S European missions in astrophysics space physics planetary sciences earth sciences and life and microgravity research that illustrate lessons learned on the evolution of the cooperation mission planning and scheduling international agreements cost sharing management and scientific output These lessons form the basis of the joint committee's findings and recommendations which serve to improve the future conduct and enhance the scientific output of U S European cooperation and collaboration in space science Assessment of Impediments to Interagency Collaboration on Space and Earth Science Missions National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Space Studies Board, Committee on Assessment of Impediments to Interagency Cooperation on Space and Earth Science Missions, 2011-05-31 Through an examination of case studies agency briefings and existing reports and drawing on personal knowledge and direct experience the Committee on Assessment of Impediments to Interagency Cooperation on Space and Earth Science Missions found that candidate projects for multiagency collaboration in the development and implementation of Earth observing or space science missions are often intrinsically complex and therefore costly and that a multiagency approach to developing these missions typically results in additional complexity and cost Advocates of collaboration have sometimes underestimated the difficulties and associated costs and risks of dividing responsibility and accountability between two or more partners they also discount the possibility that collaboration will increase the risk in meeting performance objectives This committee's principal recommendation is that agencies should conduct Earth and space science projects independently unless It is judged that cooperation will result in significant added scientific value to the project over what could be achieved by a single agency alone or Unique capabilities reside within one agency that are necessary for the mission success of a project managed by another agency or The project is intended to transfer from research to operations necessitating a change in responsibility from one agency to another during the project or There are other compelling reasons to pursue collaboration for example a desire to build capacity at one of the cooperating agencies Even when the total project cost may increase parties may still find collaboration attractive if their share of a mission is more affordable than funding it alone In these cases alternatives to interdependent reliance on another government agency should be considered For example agencies may find that buying services from another agency or pursuing interagency coordination of spaceflight data collection is preferable to fully interdependent cooperation
