River Reflections A Collection Of River Writings:

River Reflections Verne Huser, 2005 Three hundred and fifty years of river literature come together in this memorable collection

Mountains Of Memory Don Scheese, 2001-11 In Mountains of Memory seasoned wilderness dweller Don Scheese charts a long season of watching for and fighting fires in Idaho's River of No Return Wilderness 151 the largest federal wilderness area in the mainland United States An inspiring tale of self discovery Mountains of Memory paints a complex portrait of the natural institutional and historical forces that have shaped the great forested landscapes of the American West A student of nature writing as well as a fire lookout with over a decade of experience Scheese recounts his life at the top of the world along with daring adventures such as backpacking and mountaineering in the Bighorn Crags and kayaking down the Middle Fork of the Salmon River All the while he touches upon the mysterious and powerful realities of the wilderness around him and stunning dawns visible within the glass cage perched on a 9 000 foot mountain stirring flashes of lightning visible all around the dark landscape as the radio crackles with reports of strikes observed and fires spotted long awaited trips down the mountain to civilization for cold beer and hot pizza In the tradition of Edward Abbey and Gary Snyder Don Scheese offers readers a meditation on the meaning and value of wilderness at the beginning of the twenty first century

Nature Writing Don Scheese, 2013-10-28 In this comprehensive study of the genre Don Scheese traces its evolution from the pastoralism evident in the natural history observations of Aristotle and the poetry of Virgil to current American writers He documents the emergence of the modern form of nature writing as a reaction to industrialization Scheese's personal observations of natural settings sharpen the reader's understanding of the dynamics between author and locale His study is further informed by ample use of illustrations and close readings core writers such as Thoreau John Muir and Mary Austin showing how each writer's work exemplifies the pastoral tradition and celebrate a spirit of place in the United States
