Argentina and the United States 1810-1960 Harold F. Peterson, 1964-01-01 Dr Peterson's book is the first in English or Spanish to encompass the entire sweep of Argentine American relations from the time of Argentina's revolt against Spain in 1810 to the close of its 150th year of independence Through comprehensive analysis and narrative this study illuminates one of the most enigmatic areas of Western Hemisphere relationships From what would seem to be a bewildering array of incidents Professor Peterson isolates the basic undercurrents which mold Argentine policies Internally Argentina's path to stability is shown to be marred by developing social stratification and conflict economic mismanagement and the deep uncertainty of shifts from dictatorship to democracy Internationally the germs of discord with the United States are found in nationalism anticolonialism desire for hemispheric leadership and economic competition Discussed too are the fascinating crucial weaknesses and errors of human leadership in both countries Argentina and the United States 1810 1960 makes an important contribution to an understanding of current as well as historical affairs it greatly helps to explain why in the twentieth century the government and people of the United States frequently face an Argentine problem

Mercosur

Francisco Domínguez,2004 This collection of essays aims to contribute to our understanding of the process of regional integration currently underway in South America Mercosur is a regional manifestation of a world wide process of globalisation whose driving force is economic but which is potentially much more than that It involves a variety of political social and cultural processes some of them barely at an embryonic stage though each advancing at its own rate of progress Mercosur's neo liberal matrix however has led to the economic decision making process being taken outside the realm of politics thus leaving large sections of the population with no mechanism to influence the integration process so that it addresses their urgent needs and demands
