eighty European journeys examines the everyday spatial concerns of nineteenth century travelers with a focus on travelers from the Netherlands and North Sea region From common soldiers in revolutionary Belgium to guests of the tsars in Russia many of their travel accounts are here examined for the first time Chapters analyze the different meanings of the home and homeliness travelers desires for socializing but equally their intricate privacy norms their intense attachment to cleanliness order space and light and the discomforts of cold hot wet hard and cramped spaces Author Anna P H Geurts details what spatial characteristics travelers valued what measures they took to ensure them and what sensations emotions and thoughts this resulted in Geurts s careful attention to gender class and individual experience turns existing conceptions of industrial modernity on their head From Napoleonic stagecoaches and sailing boats to the steam powered journeys of the belle poque

the continuities in travel experiences are surprising as are the commonalities between travelers of different social classes and genders Significant shifts in their spatial micropolitics should be sought less in the world of administration and industrial machinery and more in travelers increasingly flexible and egalitarian mindset and changing economic relations This book will be of value to students and researchers of cultural history as well as contemporary planning and design Canada in 1849
