Trans and Sexuality Christina Richards,2017-08-10 Grounded in cutting edge qualitative research Trans and Sexuality explores the sexuality of people who do not identify with the gender that they were assigned at birth Arguing that whilst splitting members of the trans community into distinct groups might seem like a reasonable theoretical procedure the pervasive assumption that group membership impacts on the sexuality of trans people has unduly biased opinions in this highly contested yet dramatically under researched area Moreover whilst existing literature has taken a purely positivistic standpoint or relies on methodology that could be seen as exploitative towards trans people Richards is careful to place the real life experiences of trans research participants at the heart of the work Showing that sexuality extends beyond the bedroom this forward thinking book touches on topics such as identity sexuality and the intersections between the two Richards takes a cross disciplinary approach and considers the sexuality of trans people within the contexts of psychiatric and psychological settings including Gender Identity Clinics as well as in the broader contexts of cultural and community settings The implications of the research at hand are also explored with respect to counselling psychology and existentialist philosophy Trans and Sexuality will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of gender and sexuality counselling sociology psychotherapy psychology and psychiatry It will be of particular interest to those seeking an in depth and up to date overview of ethics and methodologies with people from marginalised sexualities and genders The Photographic News William Crookes,2023-03-02 Reprint of the original first published in 1859 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost The Artist and Journal of Home Culture ,1881 The European Magazine and London Review, by the Philological Society of London ,1820
