Magazine, 1859-1907 George J. Worth, 2017-03-02 Macmillan's Magazine has long been recognized as one of the most significant of the many British literary intellectual periodicals that flourished in the second half of the nineteenth century Yet the first volume of the Wellesley Index to Victorian Periodicals 1966 pointed out that There is no study of Macmillan's

Magazine and that lack has been only partially remedied in all the decades since In this work George Worth addresses five principal questions Where did Macmillan's come from and why in 1859 Who or what was the guiding spirit behind the

Magazine especially in its early formative years What cluster of ideas gave it such coherence as it manifested during that period How did it and its parent firm deal with authors and juggle their periodical work and the books they produced for Macmillan and Co And what finally accounted for the palpable decline in the quality and fiscal health of Macmillan s during the last 25 years of its life and ultimately for its death Worth includes a treasure trove of original material about the Magazine much of it drawn from unpublished manuscripts and other previously untapped primary sources Macmillan s Magazine 1859 1907 contributes to the understanding not only of one significant Victorian periodical but also more generally of the literary and cultural milieu in which it originated flourished declined and expired Feminine Singularity Ronjaunee Chatterjee,2022-08-09 What happens if we read nineteenth century and Victorian texts not for the autonomous liberal subject but for singularity for what is partial contingent and in relation rather than what is merely alone Feminine Singularity offers a powerful feminist theory of the subject and shows us paths to thinking subjectivity race and gender anew in literature and in our wider social world Through fresh sophisticated readings of Lewis Carroll Christina Rossetti Charles Baudelaire and Wilkie Collins in conversation with psychoanalysis Black feminist and queer of color theory and continental philosophy Ronjaunee Chatterjee uncovers a lexicon of feminine singularity that manifests across poetry and prose through likeness and minimal difference rather than individuality and identity Reading for singularity shows us the ways femininity is fundamentally entangled with racial difference in the nineteenth century and well into the contemporary as well as how rigid categories can be unsettled and upended Grappling with the ongoing violence embedded in the Western liberal imaginary Feminine Singularity invites readers to commune with the subversive potentials in nineteenth century literature for thinking subjectivity today William and Lucy Angela Thirlwell,2003-01-01 The marriage of William Michael Rossetti 1829 1919 and Lucy Madox Brown 1843 1894 united two of the most resonant Pre Raphaelite family names Their passionate and ultimately tragic relationship described here for the first time provides a fresh perspective on nineteenth century marriage and on the private lives of eminent Victorians Sibling of Dante Gabriel and Christina Rossetti William was one of the original Pre Raphaelite Brothers a Bohemian radical author poet critic artist connoisseur biographer historian and taxman Lucy the intense intellectual daughter of Ford Madox Brown was an ambitious artist and biographer of Mary Shelley in spite of struggling with tuberculosis for nearly a decade Drawing on hundreds of previously unpublished sources and a wealth of new visual material including art by William Lucy and others of their circle and striking contemporary photographs the book follows William and Lucy through their separate professional careers marriage continental travels and Lucy s illness and death At the crossover between art history literary criticism social history and biography the book rewrites Pre Raphaelite history and brings to life two fascinating people who were both of their time and ahead of it RDA: Resource Description and Access: 2013 Revision Joint Steering Committee (JSC),American Library Association (ALA),Canadian Library Association (CLA),Chartered Institute of Library and Information Professionals (CILIP, UK),Deutsche
