United States Patent and Trademark Office ,1985 Virgil and his Translators Susanna Braund,Zara Martirosova Torlone,2018-10-04 This is the first volume to offer a critical overview of the long and complicated history of translations of Virgil from the early modern period to the present day transcending traditional studies of single translations or particular national traditions in isolation to offer an insightful comparative perspective The twenty nine essays in the collection cover numerous European languages from English French and German to Greek Irish Italian Norwegian Slovenian and Spanish but also look well beyond Europe to include discussion of Brazilian Chinese Esperanto Russian and Turkish translations of Virgil While the opening two contributions lay down a broad theoretical and comparative framework the majority conduct comparisons within a particular language and combine detailed case studies with in depth contextualization and theoretical background showing how the translations discussed are embedded in their own cultures and historical moments The final two essays are written from the perspective of contemporary translators closing out the volume with a profound assessment not only of the influence exerted by the major Roman poet on later literature but also why translation of a canonical author such as Virgil matters not only as a national and transnational cultural phenomenon but as a personal engagement with a literature of enduring power and relevance Marie de France Glyn Sheridan Burgess,1986 A listing of the latest publications on Marie de France This is the fourth volume of Marie de France Bibliography following on from the original volume 1977 and the two Supplements 1986 1997 Each volume provides full details of editions and translations of the three works normally attributed to Marie de France the Lais the Fables and the Espurgatoire seint Patriz plus alphabetically arranged lists of books and articles each accompanied by a substantial summary and information on theses and dissertations GLYN S BURGESS is Emeritus Professor of French at the University of Liverpool Altazor (Revised Edition). Vicente Huidobro,2003 Revised edition of a Latin American classic in a tour de force translation Homeric Translation in Theory and Practice Francis William Newman,1861 Collaborative Translation and Multi-Version Texts in Early Modern Europe Belén Bistué,2016-05-23 Focusing on team translation and the production of multilingual editions and on the difficulties these techniques created for Renaissance translation theory this book offers a study of textual practices that were widespread in medieval and Renaissance Europe but have been excluded from translation and literary history The author shows how collaborative and multilingual translation practices challenge the theoretical reflections of translators who persistently call for a translation text that offers a single univocal version and maintains unity of style In order to explore this tension Bistué discusses multi version texts in both manuscript and print from a diverse variety of genres the Scriptures astrological and astronomical treatises herbals goliardic poems pamphlets the Greek and Roman classics humanist grammars geography treatises pedagogical dialogs proverb collections and romances Her analyses pay careful attention to both European vernaculars and classical languages including Arabic which played a central role in the intense translation activity carried out in medieval Spain Comparing actual translation texts and strategies with the forceful theoretical demands for unity that characterize the reflections of early modern translators the author challenges some of the assumptions frequently made in translation and literary analysis The book contributes to the understanding of early modern discourses and writing practices including the emerging theoretical discourse on translation and the writing of narrative fiction both of which as Bistu shows define themselves against the models of collaborative translation and multi version texts
