commercials in the 1960s and the setting up of his own company Unlike some directors he derived from this experience a sure sense of the commercial aspects of filmmaking as well as its aesthetic considerations The volume also considers stories of his early education in a Catholic seminary which he drew on in his semiautobiographical film The Devil's Playground the success of which launched him as an exciting new feature director The volume expands on Schepisi's success story to chart his development as a director in demand in other countries notably in the US and the UK as well as continuing to make major films in Australia Brian McFarlane argues that Schepisi's career is symptomatic of Australian directors who have made their presences felt on the international stage Whereas other key directors of the Australian film revival such as Peter Weir and Bruce Beresford have been the subject of book length critical studies Schepisi's career has not to date been so explored McFarlane takes a critical account of Schepisi's film output including such standouts as The Chant of Jimmie Blacksmith Plenty Roxanne Six Degrees of Separation Mr Baseball and Last Orders and he augments analysis with interviews with the director By discussing the production histories and both critical and popular receptions McFarlane's study shines a new light on Schepisi's work and his rise to prominence in the global film industry     AFI Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1971     Cyrano de Bergerac Edmond Rostand, 1898     The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries three stars good four stars excellent five stars masterpiece and yes author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut In addition to a precis each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing recommended acceptable cautionary and unacceptable Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre i e animated drama sports mystery adventure etc as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection     Cyrano de Bergerac Edmond Rostand, 1923 Cyrano the gallant soldier and brilliant wit also is a timid lover and because of his nose woos his love by proxy of a more handsome man     Film as Religion John Lyden, 2003-06 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2003 Film as Religion argues that popular films perform a religious function in our culture Like more formal religious institutions films can provide us with ways to view the world and values to confront it Lyden contends that approaches which interpret films only ideologically or theologically miss the mark in understanding their appeal to viewers He develops an alternative method which shows how films can be understood as representing a religious worldview in their own right Lyden surveys the state of the study of religion and film offering an overview of previous methods before presenting his own Rather than seeking to uncover hidden meanings in film detectable only to scholars Lyden emphasizes how film functions for its audiences the beliefs and values it conveys and its ritual power to provide emotional catharsis He includes a number of brief cases studies in which he applies this method to the study of film genres including westerns and action movies children s films and romantic comedies and individual films from The Godfather to E T showing how films can function religiously European Silent Films on Video William B.

Shilling,2013-09-01 A new entertainment form the movies caused a sensation when the first silent flickers hit the silver screen Few cities however embraced this new medium more than Rochester New York And the movie mania bug bit few as hard as it did author and historian Donovan Shilling This son of a movie theatre owner was hooked after watching his first film and began collecting all kinds of movie memorabilia including posters advertisements photos and more He has now dipped into his collection to compile this scrapbook tracing Rochester s Movie Mania If you like this keep watching because he has barely scratched the surface of his collection Devouring Time Philippa Sheppard,2017-05-26 From Kenneth

Branagh s groundbreaking Henry V to Justin Kurzel s haunting Macbeth many modern filmmakers have adapted Shakespeare for the big screen Their translations of Renaissance plays to modern cinema both highlight and comment on contemporary culture and attitudes to art identity and the past A dynamic analysis of twenty seven films adapted from Shakespeare s works Philippa Sheppard s Devouring Time addresses a wide range of topics including gender ritual music setting rhetoric and editing She argues that the directors choice to adapt these four hundred year old plays is an act of nostalgia not only for the plays themselves but also for the period in which they were written the association of genius that accompanies them and the medium of theatre Sheppard contends that millennial anxiety brought on by the social and technological revolutions of the last five decades has generated a yearning for Shakespeare because he is an icon of a literary culture that is often deemed threatened Authoritative and accessible Devouring Time s investigations of filmmakers nostalgia for the art of the past shed light on Western concepts of gender identity and colonialism Evolution, Literature, and Film Brian Boyd,Joseph
