Early Years Assessment: Physical Development Trudi Fitzhenry, Karen Murphy, 2017-11-02 Gold winner at the Practical Pre School Awards 2015. Physical development underpins much of a child's later educational advancement. Without good coordination, core stability and gross motor skills, the fine motor skills needed for tool handling and writing may not fully develop. Each aspect of physical development is interlinked with a child's future success as a learner. This book contains practical, easy-to-follow suggestions linked to the ages and stages of the Early Years Outcomes. It offers clear information on what to look for in terms of the child's developing moving and handling skills and how to plan for next steps. Each section is colour-coded and links the Early Years Outcomes to the planning cycle and Characteristics of Effective Learning. It contains a wide range of additional activities and an assessment grid to support practitioners' current tracking systems and help demonstrate progress over a specific period of time.

Infant Play Therapy Janet A. Courtney, 2020-03-12. Infant Play Therapy is a groundbreaking resource for practitioners interested in the varied play therapy theories, models and programs available for the unique developmental needs of infants and children under the age of three. The impressive list of expert contributors in the fields of play therapy and infant mental health cover a wide range of early intervention play-based models and topics. Chapters explore areas including neurobiology, developmental trauma, parent-infant attachment relationships, neurosensory play, affective touch, grief and loss, perinatal depression, adoption, autism, domestic violence, sociocultural factors and more. Chapter case studies highlight leading approaches and offer techniques to provide a comprehensive understanding of both play therapy and the ways we understand and recognize the therapeutic role of play with infants. In these pages, professionals and students alike will find valuable clinical resources to bring healing to family systems with young children.
