Associations BERA Special Education Group on Race and Ethnicity 2010 2013 Race and Lander are advocates for the promotion of race and ethnicity within education With its unique structure and organisation of empirical material this volume collates contributions from global specialists and fresh new voices to bring cutting edge research and findings to a multi disciplinary marker which includes education sociology and political studies The aim of this book is to promote and advocate a range of contemporary issues related to race ethnicity and inclusion in relation to pedagogy teaching and learning The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Multicultural Education David Gillborn, Gloria Ladson-Billings, 2004 Bringing together scholarship from both sides of the Atlantic this book focuses on the questions that shape the field of multicultural education offering the reader an opportunity to achieve a real grasp of the subject

Killing the Model Minority Stereotype Nicholas Daniel Hartlep, Brad J. Porfilio, 2015-06-01 Killing the Model Minority Stereotype comprehensively explores the complex permutations of the Asian model minority myth exposing the ways in which stereotypes of Asian Americans operate in the service of racism Chapters include counter narratives critical analyses and transnational perspectives This volume connects to overarching projects of decolonization which social justice educators and practitioners will find useful for understanding how the model minority myth functions to uphold white supremacy and how complicity has a damaging impact in its perpetuation The book adds a timely contribution to the model minority discourse The contributors to this book demonstrate that the insidious model minority stereotype is alive and well At the same time the chapters carefully and powerfully examine ways to deconstruct and speak back to these misconceptions of Asian Americans Hartlep and Porfilio pull together an important volume for anyone interested in how racial and ethnic stereotypes play out in the lives of people of color across various contexts Vichet Chhuon University of Minnesota Twin Cities This volume presents valuable additions to the model minority literature exploring narratives challenging stereotypes in a wide range of settings and providing helpful considerations for research and practice David W Chih University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign Asian Pacific Islander adolescents and young adults are especially impacted by the model minority stereotype and this volume details the real life consequences for them and for all communities of color The contributors provide a wide ranging critique and deconstruction of the stereotype by uncovering many of its manifestations and they also take the additional step of outlining clear strategies to undo the stereotype and prevent its deleterious effects on API youth Killing the Model Minority Stereotype Asian American Counterstories and Complicity is an essential read for human service professionals educators therapists and all allies of communities of color Joseph R Mills LICSW Asian Counseling and Referral Service Seattle WA

Peacebuilding, Citizenship, and Identity Christina Parker, 2015-12-17 As communities around the world continue to attract international immigrants schools have become centers for learning how to engage with people s multiple ethnic and cultural origins Ethnocultural minority immigrant students carry diverse histories and perspectives which can serve as resources for critical reflection about social conflicts These students identities need to be included in the curriculum so that diversity and conflictual issues can be openly discussed Immigrant children embody the many issues confronting today's youth in a global transnational and interconnected world Drawing on in depth empirical case studies this book explores the classroom experiences of these children Varying in social and cultural capital they contend with social and cultural conflict influenced not only by global politics and familial prejudices but also by structural exclusion in Western curricula In democratic peacebuilding education diverse students express divergent points of view in open inclusive dialogue Negotiating their multiple identities such children develop skills for managing and responding to that conflict thereby acquiring tools to challenge dominant hegemonic systems of oppression and control later in life In vivid classroom depictions the reader learns of many outcomes Young quiet and marginalized voices were heard Dialogic pedagogies encouraged cooperation among students and strengthened class communities What is more the implicit and explicit curricula implemented in these diverse classrooms served to shape how students interpreted democracy in multicultural Canada The diverse experiences of the young people and teachers in this book illuminate the innermost landscapes of multicultural classrooms providing deep insight into the social and cultural challenges and opportunities that ethnocultural minority children experience at school

Judith Butler and Education Deborah Youdell, 2020-04-22 The work of Judith Butler has been at the forefront of both theorising the subject as a product of power and explicating possibilities for political alliances and action that are available to such subjects Mobilising a range of philosophical resources from Hegel and Foucault to Lacan Levinas Wittig and Arendt her work has held a core concern with the way that the subject is made in terms of sex gender and sexuality and has been an invaluable resource in the development of queer theory and thinking about queer practice Butler's scholarly work has been aimed primarily at a philosophical audience yet her insights into the constitution constraint and agency of subjects are profoundly political and have become invaluable resources in feminist queer anti racist and anti capitalist work Over the last two decades she has been a major influence on research concerned with social justice in education and has changed the ways that classroom practices and relationships can be understood transforming the way we think about both teacher and student This collection brings together some of the most outstanding work in education that has developed and applied Butler's work to empirical questions translating her philosophy for an education audience and providing compelling analyses of the ways that the subjects of education are made how inequalities are produced in the minutiae of practice and how education's subjectivated subjects can act politically The chapters in this book were originally published as articles in Taylor and Francis journals

War, Violence and Social Justice Masoud Kamali, 2016-03-09 This book analyses the role of war and violence in both its physical and symbolic forms for social work in a time of neoliberal globalisation from a social justice perspective It argues that the consequences of wars in both their old and new forms and the exercise of symbolic violence for the practices of social work at national and global levels have been ignored This work explores the relationship between recent neoliberal and global transformations and their consequences for intensifying new wars and conflicts in non Western countries on the one hand and the increasing symbolic violence against marginalised people with immigrant and non Western background in many Western countries on the other The analytical approach of the book based on the theories of multiple modernities and symbolic violence is unique since no other work has applied such theoretical perspectives for analysing inequalities in relation to the condition of lives of non Western people living in Western and non Western countries This is a necessary contribution for social work education and research since the discipline needs new theoretical perspectives to be able to meet the new challenges raised by recent global transformations and neoliberal globalisation
