Scottish Presbyterian Worship Bryan D. Spinks,2020-09-30 This seminal work by one of the world s most distinguished liturgical scholars fills an important gap in the history of the Church of Scotland and of Scottish worship It offers an in depth narrative of a neglected liturgical legacy and a perceptive analysis of the Church s evolving patterns of worship from the middle of the 19th century to the present day A magisterial study it includes Inherited Patterns of Public Prayer Liturgical Disruption Dr Robert Lee Of Greyfriars Edinburgh The Church Service Society and The Euchologion Nineteenth Century Public Worship Provisions including open air communions Worship s Companions Hymns and Choirs Worship and the High Church Parties Culture Ecclesiology and Architecture Worship Between the Two World Wars The Ecumenical and Liturgical Movements Into Postmodernity and the Present The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture James Stevens Curl,Susan Wilson,2015 With over 6 000 entries this is the most authoritative dictionary of architectural history available Scotland in 100 Buildings Roger Emmerson,2025-05-08 Scotland in 100 Buildings by architect Roger Emmerson is a captivating journey through the architectural marvels of Scotland seen uniquely through Emmerson s personal experiences This isn t a dry history or textbook it s a lively intimate account where each building tells its own story Emmerson has visited every site featured offering first hand insights that bring these places to life from iconic landmarks to hidden gems His reflections aim to inspire readers to explore for themselves rather than simply inform making this book easy to pick up at any page Ideal for architecture enthusiasts travellers and locals alike Scotland in 100 Buildings will appeal to anyone curious about Scotland s diverse buildings and the personal tales they inspire It s perfect for those seeking an approachable and authentic look at Scotland s architectural legacy Architecture and Interpretation Jill Franklin,T. A. Heslop,Christine Stevenson,2012 Essays centred on the methods pleasures and pitfalls of architectural interpretation A Passion for Castles Janet Brennan-Inglis,2022-10-06 In the 1880s two Edinburgh architects began to survey measure and sketch the castles of Scotland travelling the length and breadth of the country on trains bicycles and on foot Together they produced the five magnificent volumes of The Castellated and Domestic Architecture of Scotland an unrivalled work of research that surveys more than 700 of Scotland s castellated buildings ranging from great medieval fortresses to small lairds houses with pepper pot turrets and is illustrated with thousands of sketches and plans The first part of A Passion for Castles tells the life stories of David MacGibbon and Thomas Ross and their work as Edinburgh architects before they embarked on their magisterial survey revealing interesting and previously unknown details about the two men The second part of the book sets their enormously ambitious castles project in its historical context and describes how MacGibbon and Ross managed to achieve their pioneering systematic and comprehensive survey The final part of the book provides a regional overview of the current status of all the castles surveyed by MacGibbon and Ross followed by a thematic exploration of those that have been lost those that have been transformed and those at risk of collapse before posing questions about what the future holds for the castles of Scotland

The Routledge Handbook on the Reception of Classical Architecture Nicholas Temple, Andrzej Piotrowski, Juan Manuel Heredia, 2019-11-01 This is the first comprehensive study of the reception of classical architecture in different regions of the world Exploring the impact of colonialism trade slavery religious missions political ideology and intellectual artistic exchange the authors demonstrate how classical principles and ideas were disseminated and received across the globe By addressing a number of contentious or unresolved issues highlighted in some historical surveys of architecture the chapters presented in this volume question long held assumptions about the notion of a universally accepted classical tradition and its broadly Euro centric perspective Featuring thirty two chapters written by international scholars from China Europe Turkey North America Mexico Australia and New Zealand the book is divided into four sections 1 Transmission and re conceptualisation of classical architecture 2 Classical influence through colonialism political ideology and religious conversion 3 Historiographical surveys of geographical regions and 4 Visual and textual discourses This fourfold arrangement of chapters provides a coherent structure to accommodate different perspectives of classical reception across the world and their geographical ethnographic ideological symbolic social and cultural contexts Essays cover a wide geography and include studies in Italy France England Scotland the Nordic countries Greece Austria Portugal Romania Germany Poland India Singapore China the USA Mexico Brazil New Zealand and Australia Other essays in the volume focus on thematic issues or topics pertaining to classical architecture such as ornament spolia humanism nature moderation decorum heresy and taste An essential reference guide The Routledge Handbook on the Reception of Classical Architecture makes a major contribution to the study of architectural history in a new global context

Scottish Architects' Papers Rebecca M. Bailey, 1996 Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects, 1921 History of Scottish Architecture Miles Glendinning, 2019-07-30 At last here is a single volume authoritative history of Scottish architecture This compact yet comprehensive account combines factual description of the vast and fertile range of visual forms and key architects in each period with a wide ranging analysis of their social ideological and historical context As Scotland has often been closely involved with new trends in western architecture this book highlights the interaction of Scottish developments with broader European and international movements From the beginnings of the Renaissance in the 15th century right up to the 1990s this much needed survey covers the entire post medieval story in one volume

The Victorian Church Chris Brooks, Andrew Saint, 1995 This is a reassessment of the phenomenon of church architecture in the 19th century It presents a range of interpretations that approach Victorian churches as products of institutional needs socio cultural developments and economic forces Jewish Culture and Society in North Africa Emily Benichou Gottreich, Daniel J. Schroeter, 2011-07-01

With only a small remnant of Jews still living in the Maghrib at the beginning of the 21st century the vast majority of today's inhabitants of North Africa have never met a Jew Yet as this volume reveals Jews were an integral part of the North African landscape from antiquity Scholars from Morocco Algeria Tunisia Israel and the United States shed new light on Jewish life and Muslim Jewish relations in North Africa through the lenses of history anthropology language and literature The history and life stories told in this book illuminate the close cultural affinities and poignant relationships between Muslims and Jews and the uneasy coexistence that both united and divided them throughout the history of the Maghrib Byzantium and British Heritage Amalia G. Kakissis, 2023-07-12 Byzantium was a very influential part of the development of the Arts and Crafts Movement 1880 1910 in Britain and although the influence of the Gothic Revival 1830 80 is well known that of the Byzantine Revival 1840 1910 is not This volume is about the people and the movements that created the Byzantine Revival and shows how they influenced British heritage from architecture to the decorative arts during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The central pillars of the volume are the architects and scholars who created the Byzantine Research Fund BRF Archive a unique collection of architectural drawings and photographs of numerous monuments across the Byzantine world and the social and professional networks in which they circulated The BRF members an eclectic and little known group who based themselves at the newly founded British School at Athens established the research of Byzantium in Britain and Greece They were trained in the traditions of the Arts and Crafts Movement which sought authenticity in design and decoration in reaction to the styles that had developed through industrialisation Their work uniting a distinctively British design tradition with Byzantine arts and crafts represents a highly significant and under researched link between Britain and the Hellenic world This volume is the first contribution to try to fill this knowledge gap Byzantium and British Heritage will appeal to all those interested in the relation between Byzantine and British culture and Byzantine art Architectural

Heritage, 2006 Spaces for Shaping the Nation Marina Beck, Christina Strunck, 2024-04-02 As spaces of knowledge the national museums and galleries of nineteenth century Europe played an important role both in the shaping of nation states and the education of their populations In this context such institutions sought to convey the history of the people for example by displaying pictorial cycles of important scenes from their history exhibiting objects associated with certain formative events or arraying period rooms to promote a specific impression of the past The contributions to this volume examine the purposes and educational strategies of national museums and national galleries via case studies from Denmark France Germany Great Britain Italy the Netherlands Poland Sweden and Switzerland The Grand Designer Rosemary Hannah, 2012-07-30 When the third Marquess of Bute 1847 1900 met the renowned Gothic designer William Burges it marked the start of a lifetime's collaboration with architects and artists producing work ranging from the High Victorian Gothic exuberance of Cardiff Castle and Castell Coch to the ostentation of Mount Stuart on the Isle of Bute and the sumptuous restoration of the Renaissance Falkland Palace This fascinating biography tells the story of a rich eccentric whose learning insight and kindness produced extraordinary results in architecture and life a man who combined being amongst the richest men of the age with artistic patronage of an almost incomprehensible scale Urban Heritage in Europe Gábor Sonkoly, 2023-04-17 Urban heritage which is part of the conceptual expansion of cultural heritage has become an extraordinarily complex notion Any aspect of urban life and experience can become heritage and this heritage is then continuously reinterpreted and exploited as a source not only for a city's identification but also for its cultural and economic innovation This book provides a detailed overview of Central European urban heritage It examines the key aspects of urban heritage tangible monumental natural landscape world heritage urban quarter and heritage experience dark heritage The regimes of urban heritage approach retraces 200 years of the development of European urban heritage to understand how it has become so significant and how it could integrate practically every area of urban existence The novelty of the book is the interpretation of this development as a process of successive and integrating regimes which are examined through the changing urban heritage agency and discourse Through the examples of European cities and towns such as Belgrade Budapest Gdansk Krakow Ljubljana Subotica Szentendre Vienna but also Edinburgh Nordic cities and Rome these changes reveal their inner complexities and become comparable in an interdisciplinary analysis Further a particular aspect of the history of these cities is revealed through the development of their own urban heritage The book is primarily aimed at academics researchers and postgraduate students of cultural and economic geography cultural history culture and heritage management modern and contemporary history as well as urban history planning and sociology Around and about Marius Barbeau Gordon E Smith, Lynda Jessup, Andrew Nurse, 2007-01-01 Marius Barbeau 1883 1969 played a vital role in shaping Canadian culture in the twentieth century Rooted in the premise that his cultural work in anthropology fine arts music film folklore studies fiction historiography cannot be read unidimensionally the sixteen articles that comprise this book demonstrate that by merging disciplinary perspectives about Barbeau evaluations and understandings of the situation around Barbeau can be deepened Published in English The Routledge Companion to Accounting History John Richard Edwards, Stephen Walker, 2020-04-15 The Routledge Companion to Accounting History presents a single volume synthesis of research in this expanding field exploring and analysing accounting from ancient civilisations to the modern day No longer perceived as the narrow study of how a mysterious technique was used in past the scope of accounting history has widened substantially This revised and updated volume moves beyond the history of accounting technologies accounting theories and practices and the accountants who applied them Expert contributors from around the world explore the interfaces between accounting and the economy society culture and the polity Accounting history is shown to offer important insights into such disparate phenomena as the evolution of capitalism control of labour gender and family relationships racial exploitation the operation of religious organisations and the functioning of the state Illuminating the foundation and development of accounting systems this updated classic book opens the field to a new generation of accounting scholars and historians around the world
