Memory, Edited Abby Smith Rumsey,2023-08-22 An exploration of historical memory and networks of meaning in the context of today s crises of extremism and polarization As authoritarianism continues to rise around the world the stories we tell ourselves about what has happened and what is happening become ever more relevant In Memory Edited Abby Smith Rumsey examines collective memory how it binds us and how it can be used by bad actors to manipulate us Bringing forward the voices of a rich cast of Eastern European artists from the past two hundred years from Fyodor Dostoevsky to Gerhard Richter Rumsey shows how their work and lives illustrate the devastation wrought by regimes dependent on entrenched lies to survive This hijacking of the narrative polarizes communities even as it commandeers our future Through an interdisciplinary lens that includes the best thinking from history the arts cognitive science psychology and political philosophy Rumsey lays bare our narratives showing how they are constructed and how they have changed over time Ever aware of resisting the false promise of utopia Rumsey argues that only by confronting the past and reckoning with the crimes that were committed can we ever hope to heal and gain self knowledge Memory Edited is an indispensable text for anyone who cares about democracy equality and freedom in our current age of crisis

Factory Made Steven Watson,2003-10-21 Factory Made Warhol and the Sixties is a fascinating look at the avant garde group that came together from 1964 to 1968 as Andy Warhol s Silver Factory a cast that included Lou Reed Nico Edie Sedgwick Gerard Malanga Paul Morrissey Joe Dallesandro Billy Name Candy Darling Baby Jane Holzer Brigid Berlin Ultra Violet and Viva

Steven Watson follows their diverse lives from childhood through their Factory years. He shows how this ever-changing mix of artists and poets, musicians and filmmakers, drag queens, society figures and fashion models all interacted at the Factory to create more than 500 films, the Velvet Underground paintings and sculpture and thousands of photographs. Between 1961 and 1964 Warhol produced his most iconic art: the Flower paintings, the Marilyns, the Campbell's Soup Can paintings and the Brillo Boxes. But it was his films Sleep, Kiss, Empire, The Chelsea Girls and Vinyl that constituted his most prolific output in the mid 1960s and with this book Watson points up the important and little-known interaction of the Factory with the New York avant-garde film world. Watson sets his story in the context of the revolutionary milieu of 1960s New York: the opening of Paul Young's Paraphernalia, Truman Capote's Black and White Ball, Max's Kansas City and the Beautiful People Party at the Factory among many other events. Interspersed throughout are Watson's trademark sociogram, more than 130 black and white photographs, some never before seen, and many sidebars of quotes and slang that help define the Warholian world. With Factory Made, Watson has focused on a moment that transformed the art and style of a generation.
