Royal Air Force Burtonwood Aldon Patrick Ferguson,1990-01-01 RAF and USAAF Airfields in the UK During the Second World War Geoff Mills,Daniel Knowles,2022-03-31 Shortly after the end of the Second World War the United Kingdom was described as one vast aircraft carrier anchored off the coast of Europe During a seven year period 500 airfields were constructed to serve the needs first of the RAF and later the USAAF as they carried the war to German occupied Europe The airfields that were constructed took many different forms from training airfields and Advanced Landing Grounds to grass fighter airstrips and vast complexes used to accommodate heavy bombers This book charts the history of each Second World War airfield in and around the UK providing a unique insight in to the construction operational life and post war history of each airfield Alongside detailing the history of each airfield this work comprehensively records the details of each unit that operated from airfields around the UK The information provided in this meticulously researched book is supported by a wealth of 690 photographs providing an illustration into the life of each wartime station The Candy Bombers Wolfgang J. Huschke,2008-01-01 On 24 June 1948 Lucius D Clay the Commanding General of the American Forces in Europe ordered that all disposable transport aircraft should be made available for flights to Berlin His order marked the beginning of the largest ever humanitarian supply campaign carried out entirely by air transport the Berlin Airlift Clay was well aware of the political significance of his decision The aim was to overcome the blockade mounted by the Soviet Union by supplying the western sectors of the city via air corridors The political and historical background of the Berlin Airlift have been well rese Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Die Rosinenbomber Wolfgang J. Huschke,2008-01-01 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1994 A Social History of Early Rock 'n' Roll in Germany Julia Sneeringer,2018-05-31 A Social History of Early Rock n Roll in Germany explores the people and spaces of St Pauli s rock n roll scene in the 1960s Starting in 1960 young British rockers were hired to entertain tourists in Hamburg s red light district around the Reeperbahn in the area of St Pauli German youths quickly joined in to experience the forbidden thrill of rock n roll and used African American sounds to distance themselves from the old Nazi generation In 1962 the Star Club opened and drew international attention for hosting some of the Beatles most influential performances In this book Julia Sneeringer weaves together this story of youth culture with histories of sex and gender popular culture media and subculture By exploring the history of one locale in depth Sneeringer offers a welcome contribution to the scholarly literature on space place sound and the city and pays overdue attention to the impact that Hamburg had upon music and style She is also careful to place performers such as The Beatles back into the social spatial and musical contexts that shaped them and their generation This book reveals that transnational encounters between musicians fans entrepreneurs and businessmen in St Pauli produced a musical style that provided emotional and physical liberation and challenged powerful forces of conservatism and conformity with effects that transformed the world for decades to come A History Of The B-24

Liberator in Over 300 Photographs, Stories And Analysis: Including The U.S. Army Air Forces in World War II: Combat Chronology 1941 - 1945 - American Air Power in WWII ,2015-07-28

PREFACE The chronology is concerned primarily with operations of the US Army Air Forces and its combat units between December 7 1941 and September 15 1945 It is designed as a companion reference to the seven volume history of The Army Air Forces in World War II edited by Wesley Frank Craven and James Lea Cate The research was a cooperative endeavor carried out in the United States Air Force historical archives by the Research Branch of the Albert F Simpson Historical Research Center Such an effort has demanded certain changes in established historical methodology as well as some arbitrary rules for presentation of the results After International and US events entries are arranged geographically They begin with events at Army Air Forces Headquarters in Washington then proceed eastward around the world using the location of the headquarters of the numbered air forces as the basis for placement For this reason entries concerning the Ninth Air Force while operating in the Middle East follow Twelfth Air Force When that headquarters moves to England in October 1943 the entries are shifted to follow Eighth Air Force The entries end with those numbered air forces which remained in the Zone of the Interior as well as units originally activated in the ZI then designated for later movement overseas such as Ninth and Tenth Air Forces The ZI entries do not include Eighth and Twentieth Air Forces which were established in the ZI with the original intent of placing them in those geographical locations with which they became historically identified For these two units original actions are shown either under AAF or in their intended geographic area of location All times and dates used are those of the area under discussion The entry 1 2 Jun indicates that an event occurred during the night between the two given dates while 1 2 Jun indicates an action over a period of time In dealing with people again arbitrary decisions were implemented For military men below the general officer or equivalent level full grade and name were used For general officers and those of equal grade in other US and foreign services the complete rank both that at the time first mentioned and the highest rank held prior to the end of the war and name will be found in the index Only an abbreviated rank e g Gen or Adm and last name are used in the text The exception is where two general officers had the same last name in such cases the first name is also included Similarly for civilian leaders only the last name is used full name and title are given in the index Location of all towns islands etc is also made in the index In all cases attempts were made to cite place names in use by the native population at the time of or immediately before the war No names imposed by a conqueror are used For example Pylos Bay not Navarino Bay is used Further as appropriate native geographic terms are used Shima for island in Japanese island groups See for lake in Germany However two exceptions were made In cases in which the place became infamous because of the actions of the conquering power that name is preferred for example Auschwitz would be used rather than the Polish name of Oswiecim Also in larger international cities such as Roma Koln and Wien the anglicized name is used Where a village or hamlet was difficult to locate or where there were several such places with the same name in a general area the coordinates are given in the index In some cases with no extant navigational aids of the attacking force the best possible guess was made based upon all available evidence In other instances such as the bridge at Hay ti attacked so often by Tenth Air Force a logical guess could not be made In these cases a question mark is placed in brackets after the index entry Accent marks such as umlauts were omitted
