Bloodline Iain Gordon,2020-01-24 A guide to the history of each of the British Army s regular formations from their origins to their development over time Using easy to follow family tree type tables Bloodline shows the origins and development of every regular formation in the British Army including the latest amalgamations and changes brought about within the Future Army Structure The charts illustrate clearly how in some cases up to twenty five original regiments of the line have over the centuries by successive disbandments and amalgamations been reduced to a single regiment in today s superb but shamefully overstretched army The Battle Honours of each post Cardwell constituent are recorded separately so the progress of each of the original regiments and the theatres in which it was involved may be examined individually The pedigrees and Honours of disbanded units are also recorded so their contribution will not be lost to posterity A chronological summary of Battle honours provides an overview of the British Army s campaigns over the past 300 years and notes on the origins of each formation place its original purpose within the political and historical perspective of the time A robust editorial platform throughout applauds the Army as the Nation s most dependable and trustworthy institution and castigates government neglect and public indifference for the unnecessary blood and sacrifices which successive generations of soldiers have had to make as a result of inadequate investment and preparation Bloodline is a splendid record of achievement and will provide an invaluable work of reference for anyone who has dealings with or simply an interest in or affection for the British Army Praise for Bloodlines I know of no other resource that contains such a wealth of information about the History of the Regiments of the British Army This will be a very useful addition to my shelf of military reference books Daly History Blog If you conduct research into the main elements of the British Army then this is an invaluable guide as to their lineage hereditary and modern counterparts The author has produced an outstanding reference text in one easy to follow volume He has done great service to aiding researchers with this publication In one excellent volume he has listed the principal elements of the Army and their histories This concise volume deserves space on any serious researcher s shelf Military Archive Research Dress Regulations for the Officers of the Army. Royal Horse Guards,1834 Armies of the Crimean War, 1853-1856 Gabriele Esposito,2023-11-23 Lavishly illustrated with over 100 illustrations that detail the composition organization uniforms weapons and equipment of each force The Crimean War was the first major European war since the end of the Napoleonic Wars and Britain's only war on that continent in the century between Waterloo and WW1 When Russia invaded provinces of the Ottoman Empire the British and French later joined by the Kingdom of Piedmont Sardinia intervened to limit Russian expansion towards the Black Sea Each of the armies contained an eclectic mix of units The regular European regiments still displayed much of the bright color and finery associated with the Napoleonic era the British infantry in their scarlet tunics forming the famous thin red line at Balaklava for instance while each also contained a mix of exotic units drawn from across their respective empires The French fielded Zouaves and Spahis from North and West Africa not to mention the legendary Foreign Legion the Ottomans had Tunisians and Egyptians alongside Balkan mountaineers and the infamous Bashi bazouks the Russians of course had their Cossacks and the British fielded little known German Swiss and Italian mercenaries Gabriele Esposito details the composition organization uniforms and weaponry of each force and illustrates many of them with early black and white photos this being the first major war for which photography was available as well as numerous color artworks Hart's Annual Army List, Militia List, and Imperial Yeomanry List ,1893 Hart's Annual Army List, Special Reserve List, and Territorial Force List ,1842 The Gentleman's Magazine ,1810 The Gentleman s magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press the Trader s monthly intelligencer section consists of news foreign and domestic vital statistics a register of the month s new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs The Bystander ,1908 The Journal of the Household Brigade for the Year 1862-80 I.
