Royal Siamese Maps:

Royal Siamese Maps Santanee Pasuk, Santanee Phasuk, 2004 In 1996 seventeen exquisite handdrawn and hand coloured cotton maps were discovered in the Grand Palace Bangkok These long lost treasures record cartographically Siamese warfare and trade during the first three reigns of the Bangkok Period 1782 1851 Large in size and works of art in themselves these maps overturn the conventional view of indigenous map making in Southeast Asia Focusing on Siam and on her immediate neighbours the collection also includes a remarkable four metre coastal map extending from peninsular Malaysia through China to Korea AUTHOR Dr Santanee Phasuk is the senior teacher at Chitrlada School and gained her doctorate in cartography from the School of Oriental and African Studies University of London Professor Emeritus Philip Stott was a professor of Geography at SOAS London 378 colour illustrations

Siam in Trade and War Narisa Chakrabongse, 2006 Historical maps are much more than geographical records Often they provide insights into a country's politics trade and war In 1996 17 large hand drawn and handcoloured maps were discovered in the Princess Abhantri Paja Mansion in the Grand Palace Bangkok This magnificent collection is today in the care of HRH Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn Now for the first time Her Royal Highness has graciously allowed five of these precious maps to go on show at the Jim Thompson House Center for Arts Together with 80 other related items the exhibition Siam in Trade and War Royal Maps of the Nineteenth Century gives a fascinating picture of Siamese history and geopolitics during the first three reigns of the Chakri dynasty 120 colour illustrations

Maps of Malaysia and Borneo Frédéric Durand, Richard Curtis (Dato'), 2013 Maps of Malaya and Borneo Discovery Statehood and Progress showcases the extensive map collections of His Royal Highness Sultan Sharafuddin Idris Shah Sultan of Selangor and Richard Curtis The combined collections contain more than 160 maps dating from the 1500s to after Malaysia's formation in 1963 The collections include early Portuguese Dutch French and English maps nautical charts maps of the interior maps from atlases and encyclopaedias maps showing economy culture and communications and urban maps Extensive captions highlight key features of the maps provide insights into their creators and explain the context in which the maps were produced and used The presentation of the collections is preceded by an authoritative text on the mapping of Malaya and Borneo over the last 1 800 years This text explains the quest for accurate maps illustrates how maps showcased the changing economic cultural and political dynamics within Malaya and Borneo and describes the evolution of mapping techniques as well as providing insights into the work of leading cartographers

Owners of the Map Claudio Sopranzetti, 2018 On May 19 2010 the Royal Thai Army deployed tanks snipers and war weapons to disperse the thousands of Red Shirts protesters who had taken over the commercial center of Bangkok to demand democratic elections and an end to inequality Key to this mobilization were motorcycle taxi drivers who slowed down filtered and severed mobility in the area claiming a prominent role in national politics and ownership over the city and challenging state hegemony Four years later on May 20 2014 the same army general who directed the dispersal staged a military coup unopposed by protesters How could state power have been so fragile and open to challenge in 2010 and yet so seemingly sturdy only four years later How could protesters who had once fearlessly resisted military attacks now remain silent Owners of the Map provides answers to these questions central to contemporary political mobilizations around the globe through an ethnographic study of motorcycle taxi drivers in Bangkok Claudio Sopranzetti explores the unresolved tensions in the drivers everyday lives their migration trajectories consumer desires and political demands amidst the restructuring of Thai capitalism after the 1997 economic crisis Reconstructing the entanglements between their everyday mobility and political mobilization Sopranzetti reveals mobility not just as a strength of contemporary capitalism but also as one of its fragile spots always prone to disruption by the people who sustain its channels but remain excluded from their benefits In so doing Owners of the Map advances an analysis of power that focuses not on the sturdiness of hegemony or the ubiquity of everyday resistance but on its potential fragility as well as the work needed for its maintenance Siam Mapped Thongchai Winichakul,2021-05-25 This unusual and intriguing study of nationhood explores the 19th century confrontation of ideas that transformed the kingdom of Siam into the modern conception of a nation Siam Mapped challenges much that has been written on Thai history because it demonstrates convincingly that the physical and political definition of Thailand on which other works are based is anachronistic Map to Illustrate the Siamese Question ,1893 Mapping an Empire Matthew H. Edney,2024-05-31 In this fascinating history of the British surveys of India Matthew H Edney relates how imperial Britain used modern survey techniques to not only create and define the spatial image of its Empire but also to legitimate its colonialist activities There is much to be praised in this book It is an excellent history of how India came to be painted red in the nineteenth century But more importantly Mapping an Empire sets a new standard for books that examine a fundamental problem in the history of European imperialism D Graham Burnett Times Literary Supplement Mapping an Empire is undoubtedly a major contribution to the rapidly growing literature on science and empire and a work which deserves to stimulate a great deal of fresh thinking and informed research David Arnold Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History This case study offers broadly applicable insights into the relationship between ideology technology and politics Carefully read this is a tale of irony about wishful thinking and the limits of knowledge Publishers Weekly Transboundary Heritage and Intellectual Property Law Patricia Covarrubia,2022-11-30 Since the Intangible Heritage Convention was adopted by UNESCO in 2003 intangible cultural heritage has increasingly been an important subject of debate in international forums As more countries implement the Intangible Heritage Convention national policymakers and communities of practice have been exploring the use of intellectual property protection to achieve intangible cultural heritage safeguarding outcomes This book examines diverse cultural heritage case studies from Indigenous communities and local communities in developing and industrialised countries to offer an interdisciplinary examination of topics at the intersection between heritage and property which present cross border challenges Analysing a range of case studies which provide examples of traditional knowledge traditional cultural expressions and genetic resources by a mixture of practitioners and scholars from different fields the book addresses guidelines and legislation as well as recent developments about shared heritage to identify a progressive trend that improves the understanding of intangible cultural heritage Considering all forms of intellectual property including patents copyright design rights trade marks geographical indications and sui generis rights the book explores problems and challenges for intangible cultural heritage in crossborder situations as well as highlighting positive relationships and collaborations among communities across geographical boundaries Transboundary Heritage and Intellectual Property Law Safeguarding Intangible Cultural Heritage will be an important resource for practitioners scholars and students engaged in studying intangible cultural heritage intellectual property law heritage studies and anthropology
