Hayes, 1998 Writing with a perspective that comes from more than twenty years of study and practice Richard Hayes casts a critical eye over modern society and the teachings of Buddhism as they flow into the West Indian Buddhist Philosophy Amber Carpenter, 2014-09-03 Organised in broadly chronological terms this book presents the philosophical arguments of the great Indian Buddhist philosophers of the fifth century BCE to the eighth century CE Each chapter examines their core ethical metaphysical and epistemological views as well as the distinctive area of Buddhist ethics that we call today moral psychology Throughout this book follows three key themes that both tie the tradition together and are the focus for most critical dialogue the idea of anatman or no self the appearance reality distinction and the moral aim or ideal Indian Buddhist philosophy is shown to be a remarkably rich tradition that deserves much wider engagement from European philosophy Carpenter shows that while we should recognise the differences and distances between Indian and European philosophy its driving questions and key conceptions we must resist the temptation to find in Indian Buddhist philosophy some Other something foreign self contained and quite detached from anything familiar Indian Buddhism is shown to be a way of looking at the world that shares many of the features of European philosophy and considers themes central to philosophy understood in the European tradition Global Dialogues in the Philosophy of Religion Yujin Nagasawa, Mohammad Saleh Zarepour, 2024 Leading scholars representing the world's five great religious traditions Buddhism Hinduism Judaism Christianity and Islam discuss fundamental philosophical questions on revelation and religious experience analysis of faith science and religion the foundation of morality and life and the afterlife Secularizing Buddhism Sarah Shaw, Kate Crosby, Roger R. Jackson, Gil Fronsdaal, 2021-08-03 A timely essay collection on the development and influence of secular expressions of Buddhism in the West and beyond How do secular values impact Buddhism in the modern world What versions of Buddhism are being transmitted to the West Is it possible to know whether an interpretation of the Buddha's words is correct In this new essay collection opposing ideas that often define Buddhist communities secular versus religious modern versus traditional Western versus Eastern are unpacked and critically examined These reflections by contemporary scholars and practitioners reveal the dynamic process of reinterpreting and reimagining Buddhism in secular contexts from the mindfulness movement to Buddhist shrine displays in museums to whether rebirth is an essential belief This collection explores a wide range of modern understandings of Buddhism whether it is considered a religion philosophy or lifestyle choice and questions if secular Buddhism is purely a Western invention offering a timely contribution to an ever evolving discussion Contributors include Bhikkhu Bodhi Kate Crosby Gil Fronsdal Kathleen Gregory Funie Hsu Roger R Jackson Charles B Jones David L McMahan Richard K Payne Ron Purser Sarah Shaw Philippe Turenne and Pamela D Winfield

Cooper, Simon P. James, 2017-07-05 Buddhism one increasingly hears is an eco friendly religion It is often said that this is because it promotes an ecological view of things one stressing the essential unity of human beings and the natural world Buddhism Virtue and Environment presents a different view While agreeing that Buddhism is in many important respects in tune with environmental concerns Cooper and James argue that what makes it green is its view of human life The true connection between the religion and environmental thought is to be found in Buddhist accounts of the virtues those traits such as compassion equanimity and humility that characterise the life of a spiritually enlightened individual Central chapters of this book examine these virtues and their implications for environmental attitudes and practice Buddhism Virtue and Environment will be of interest not only to students and teachers of Buddhism and environmental ethics but to those more generally engaged with moral philosophy Written in a clear and accessible style this book presents an original conception of Buddhist environmental thought The authors also contribute to the wider debate on the place of ethics in Buddhist teachings and practices and to debates within virtue ethics on the relations between human well being and environmental concern

Tibetan Literary Genres, Texts, and Text Types , 2015-09-17 The papers in Tibetan Literary Genres Texts and Text Types deepen our knowledge of Tibetan literature They not only examine particular Tibetan genres and texts pre modern and contemporary but also genre classification transformation and reception Despite previous contributions the systematic analysis of Tibetan textual genres is still a relatively undeveloped field especially when compared with the sophisticated examinations of other literary traditions The book is divided into four parts textual typologies blurred genre boundaries specific texts and text types and genres in transition to modernity The introduction discusses previous classificatory approaches and concepts of textual linguistics The text classes that receive individual attention can be summarised as songs and poetry offering ritual hagiography encyclopaedia lexicographical texts trickster narratives and modern literature Contributors include Franz Karl Ehrhard Ruth Gamble Lama Jabb Roger R Jackson Giacomella Orofino Jim Rheingans Peter Schwieger Ekaterina Sobkovyak Victoria Sujata and Peter Verhagen Ethics without Self, Dharma without Atman Gordon F. Davis, 2018-07-18 This volume of essays offers direct comparisons of historic Western and Buddhist perspectives on ethics and metaphysics tracing parallels and contrasts all the way from Plato to the Stoics Spinoza to Hume and Schopenhauer through to contemporary ethicists such as Arne Naess Charles Taylor and Derek Parfit It compares and contrasts each Western philosopher with a particular strand in the Buddhist tradition in some chapters represented by individual writers such as Nagarjuna Vasubandhu Santideva or Tsong Khapa It does so in light of both analytic concerns and themes from the existentialist and phenomenological traditions and often in an ecumenical spirit that bridges both analytic and continentalist approaches Some of the deepest questions in ethics dealing with the scope of agency value laden notions of personhood and the nature of value in general are intertwined with questions in metaphysics One set of questions addresses how varying conceptions of selfhood relate to moral values e g the concern of self or selves for the well being of others another set of questions addresses how a conception of oneself or one's selves should or should not affect how one thinks of happiness or eudaimonia or in classical Indian terms artha sukha or nirvana Western philosophy has featured discussion of both but some would argue that certain traditions of Asian philosophy have offered a more sustained and even treatment of both sets of questions The Buddhist tradition in particular has not only featured much discussion on both fronts but has attracted many contemporary philosophers to its distinctive spectrum of approaches and to what is from many Western points of view a seemingly subversive analysis of ego selfhood and personhood whether in metaphysical phenomenological or other
