Linguistics for Students of New Testament Greek David Alan Black, 1988     A Handbook to the Exegesis of the New Testament Stanley E. Porter, 2022-02-07 This handbook provides a substantial theoretical and practical guide to the multifaceted discipline of exegesis of the New Testament After an introduction to exegesis and a bibliographic essay on the basic tools the volume has two major parts The first focuses on method and includes essays on the major approaches to exegesis including textual criticism language genre and backgrounds The second part applies exegetical method to the various literary units of the New Testament Most exegetical handbooks are either too short and brief thereby failing to cover the requisite current topics in sufficient depth or too technically difficult failing to provide a useful methodology This coordinated volume offers succinct and well informed essays with plenty of bibliography written by experts in their respective fields The handbook will serve well as a textbook as well as a reference book to the major tools and topics in the area This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details     An Introduction to the New Testament DAVID A DESILVA, 2020-05-21 Professor deSilva's outstanding textbook sets a new standard for the genre The usual topics of New Testament introduction are integrated with instruction in interpretative strategies and application to ministry formation The attractive layout includes numerous maps photographs and text boxes     Radical Frame Semantics and Biblical Hebrew Stephen Shead, 2011-09-09 Drawing on various modern linguistic models including cognitive linguistics frame semantics and construction grammar this book presents a new integrated approach to lexical semantic analysis of biblical Hebrew applying it in a detailed study of words related to exploring     Lexical Semantics of the Greek New Testament Eugene Albert Nida, J. P. Louw, 1992     The Language of the New Testament Stanley E. Porter, Andrew Pitts, 2013-02-21 In The Language of the

Biblical Semantic Logic Arthur Gibson, 2002-04-19 Biblical Semantic Logic first appeared in 1981 and seeks to show that the study of biblical and ancient Near Eastern languages and literatures can be established on a logical basis In a new prologue for this edition Gibson reviews some of the scholarly treatment of the topic since the appearance of the first edition He addresses the topics of originality and infinity and also suggests that deep areas of literary creativity resemble cosmology and pure mathematics Gibson then demonstrates how the central areas of biblical usage names predicates expressions of quantity idioms can be mapped employing some contemporary philosophy logic and linguistics There is criticism of some previous scholarly interpretations especially where these have led to the underestimation of the conceptual and logical sensitivity of biblical narrative The Use of the Septuagint in New Testament Research Tim McLay, 2003 Too often the Septuagint is misunderstood or worse ignored in New Testament studies In this book R Timothy McLay makes a sustained argument for the influence of the Greek Jewish Scriptures on the New Testament and offers basic principles for bridging the research gap between these two critical texts McLay explains the use of the Septuagint in the New Testament by looking in depth at actual New Testament citations of the Jewish Scriptures This work reveals the true extent of the Septuagint's impact on the text and theology of the New Testament Indeed given the textual diversity that existed during the first century the Jewish Scriptures as they were known read and interpreted in the Greek language provided the basis for much if not most of the interpretive context of the New Testament writers Complete with English translations a glossary of terms an extensive bibliography and helpful indexes this book will give readers a new appreciation of the Septuagint as an important tool for interpreting the New Testament

A Linguistic Approach to Revelation 19:11-20:6 and the Millennium Binding of Satan Alan E. Kurschner, 2022-08-22 This study argues that the establishment of the millennium binding of Satan and the vindication of the saints in Revelation 20 1 6 are cohesively linked with Jesus's victorious battle in Revelation 19 11 21 The major implication of this analysis views both these events as consequent effects of Christ's victory at the eschatological battle Applying systemic functional linguistics and discourse analysis of cohesion this study advances critical scholarship on the Book of Revelation by offering the first fully sustained answer to this frequently debated question regarding Satan's binding from a modern linguistic approach

Creation Language in Romans 8 Gregory P. Fewster, 2013-04-04 Modern scholarship tends to understand Paul's use of creation language in Rom 8 18 23 as part of a commentary on the state of sub human creation This misguided position warrants an inquiry into the state of lexical study in New Testament scholarship As a result Fewster articulates a theory of lexical monosemy cast in the framework of Systemic Functional Linguistics The model is applied to Paul's use of through a robust corpus analysis and investigation into the word's role within the paragraph contributes to the cohesive structure of Rom 8:18-23 and contra the majority of interpreters functions as a metaphor for the human body

Text and Interpretation Hartin, Petzer, 2019-07-01 Text and Interpretation gives an insight into the many different approaches that more recent South African scholarship has adopted in the interpretation of the New Testament While the number of approaches in New Testament interpretation has proliferated over the past few years all the proposals still fall under one of the three traditional poles sender author text receptor reader Classified according to this division each chapter has a twofold aim Firstly the perspective is situated within a wider framework of interpretation to illustrate the context out of which this approach emerges Secondly each article has selected a particular New Testament text to demonstrate this approach in practice The authors of these chapters the majority of which are South African scholars were chosen because of their expertise in their specific fields By presenting these studies together in one collection the scholarship in these different areas will become more readily accessible to a wider group of scholars

Hebrew Lexical Semantics and Daily Life in Ancient Israel Kurtis Peters, 2016-07-11 In Hebrew Lexical Semantics and Daily Life in Ancient Israel Kurtis Peters hitches the world of Biblical Studies to that of modern linguistic research Often the insights of linguistics do not appear in the study of Biblical Hebrew and if they do the theory remains esoteric Peters finds a way to maintain linguistic integrity and yet simplify cognitive linguistic methods to provide non specialists an access point By employing a cognitive approach one can coordinate the world of the biblical text with the world of its surroundings The language of cooking affords such a possibility Peters evaluates not only the words or lexemes related to cooking in the Hebrew Bible but also the world of cooking as excavated by archaeology

The Self, the Lord, and the Other according to Paul and Epictetus Michael J.

Gorman,2023-03-29 This study explores the relationship between the individual person the self the divine and other people in the writings of the apostle Paul and the Roman Stoic Epictetus It does so by examining self involving actions expressed with reflexive pronouns myself yourself etc in various kinds of sentences for example Examine yourself and You do not belong to yourself After situating the topic within the fields of linguistics and ancient Greek the study then examines the reflexive constructions in Epictetus s Discourses showing that reflexive texts express fundamental aspects of his ethic of rational self interest in imitation of the indwelling rational deity Next the investigation examines the 109 reflexive constructions in Paul providing an exegesis of each reflexive text and then synthesizing the results Paul s reflexive phrases are essential statements of his theology and ethics expressing an interconnected narrative Christology narrative apostolic identity and narrative ethic Most importantly the study finds that for Epictetus concern for others is a rational means to self realization whereas for Paul concern for others is a community ethic grounded in the story of the indwelling Christ and is the antithesis of self interest

New Testament Interpretation I. Howard Marshall,2006-10-01 These eighteen pieces have been commissioned to provide a succinct yet comprehensive guide to the best of recent evangelical thinking about how the New Testament is to be interpreted so that it may speak most clearly to today s world The need for such a handbook can be felt more keenly as on the one side a secularized world dismisses the biblical faith as outmoded unworkable and unsatisfying and on the other numerous Christian communities committed to taking that faith with ultimate seriousness are driven by controversies about how to read and understand the Bible Following the editor s introduction in which I Howard Marshall examines a familiar New Testament passage in order to exemplify the problems and rewards that await the careful interpreter the essays are arranged under four headings beginning with overviews of the history of New Testament study and the role of the interpreter s presuppositions in this enterprise then going on to discuss the various critical tools the methods of exegesis and the application of the New Testament to the faith and life of the contemporary reader An annotated bibliography concludes the presentation Because the issues involved here have too often been ignored in many quarters more than one approach to or opinion about a given matter may surface in these essays yet undergirding this diversity is the author s shared conviction as conservative evangelicals with a high regard for the authority of Holy Scripture that we are called upon to study the Bible with the full use of our minds As the editor writes The passages which we interpret must be the means through which God speaks to men and women today Our belief in the inspiration of the Bible is thus a testimony that New Testament exegesis is not just a problem it is a real possibility God can and does speak to men through even the most ignorant of expositors of his Word At the same time he calls us on to devote ourselves to his Word and use every resource to make its message the more clear

The Study of the New Testament Antonio Piñero,Jesus Peláez,2019-11-26 The most thorough grounding available in the various disciplines of NT study this is an invaluable tool for students scholars and other serious readers of the earliest Christian writings With a full survey of scholarship on each topic in 600 packed pages the volume gives a reliable in depth presentation of the history of interpretation the NT canon text criticism the language of the NT the historical and literary context methods and approaches New Testament Lexicography Jesús Peláez, Juan Mateos, 2018-08-21 This text brings together in one volume two previous books that laid the groundwork for the construction of the entries in Diccionario Griego Español del Nuevo Testamento Greek Spanish Dictionary of the New Testament namely Metodo de Análisis semántico aplicado al griego del Nuevo Testamento Method of Semantic Analysis applied to the Greek of the New Testament and Metodología del Diccionario Griego Español del Nuevo Testamento Methodology of the Greek Spanish Dictionary of the New Testament by Juan Mateos and Jesús Peláez In the introduction and first part of the text the concepts of dictionary and meaning are defined and a critical analysis of the dictionaries of F Zorell W Bauer Bauer Aland and Louw Nida is conducted Their methodologies are examined with the purpose of then presenting a method of semantic analysis and the steps for establishing the semantic formula of the various classes of lexemes which functions as the basis for determining lexical and contextual meaning In the second part the necessary steps for composing the dictionary's entries are proposed The text concludes with an analysis of related lexemes in order to demonstrate the accuracy of the suggested method For the first time a carefully developed method of semantic analysis and the corresponding methodology are presented before the construction of the dictionary's entries Reading the Wife/Sister Narratives in Genesis Hwagu Kang, 2018-10-31 The book of Genesis introduces three similar wife sister narratives commonly thought to be originating from different sources because of their repetitive entries This research explores the wife sister narratives in Genesis Gen 12 10 13 1 20 1 18 and 26 1 11 and it aims to provide an understanding of the three stories as a whole by uncovering its context by textlinguistic and literary type scene analysis Textlinguistic analysis helps us to see how each wife sister narrative functions in its context while type scene analysis emphasizes how the three narratives develop and contribute to the patriarchal narratives through their similarities and variations Although the traditional type scene analysis studies recurrent fixed motives in texts this study focuses much more on literary aspects such as characterization theme and plot Through this study the three wife sister stories will elaborate that the patriarchal narratives are not results of different authors but the well developed products of a single author The three wife sister stories work together to highlight God's faithfulness to his promises Gen 12 1 3
