Semiotics And Literary Criticism:

The Pursuit of Signs Jonathan D. Culler, 2002 This widely acclaimed work remains an important and vital work of literary scholarship Covering semiotics reader response criticism and the value of the apostrophe this work provides a detailed analysis of literary criticism

Semiotics and Literary Criticism Cesare Segre, 1973 Literary Semiotics Scott Simpkins, 2001-01-01 Literary Semiotics brings much needed revitalization to the conservatism of modern semiotic theory Scott Simpkins revisionist work scrutinizes the conflicting views on sign theory to identify new areas of development in semiotic thought and practice particularly in relation to literary theory Focusing on the idea of semiotics as a conversation about sign theory and practice Simpkins principally looks at the work of Umberto Eco while giving secondary attention to some of semiotics most influential commentators including Deleuze and Guattari Lyotard Foucault Barthes Kristeva and Derrida As an engaged interrogation of the restraints on the practice of semiotics Literary Semiotics is a provocative study for semioticians literary theorists and scholars of cultural studies and a resource for students seeking a probing examination of the theory of signs

The Pursuit of Signs Jonathan Culler, 2005-11-29 To gain a deeper understanding of the literary movement that has dominated recent Anglo American literary criticism The Pursuit of Signs is a must In a world increasingly mediated it offers insights into our ways of consuming texts that are both brilliant and bold Dancing through semiotics reader response criticism the value of the apostrophe and much more Jonathan Culler opens up for every reader the closed world of literary criticism Its impact on first publication in 1981 was immense now as Mieke Bal notes the book has the same urgency and acuity that it had then though today it has even wider implications with the interdisciplinary turn taking hold literary theory itself through this book becomes a much more widespread tool for cultural analysis

Literature, Criticism, and the Theory of Signs Victorino Tejera, 1995 Following Peirce in his non reductive understanding of the theory of signs as a branch of aesthetics this book reconceptualizes the processes of literary creation appreciation and reading in semiotic terms Here is a carefully developed theory of what sort of criteria serve to distinguish apposite from inapposite readings of literary works of art Given Peirce s triadic account of signification it enlarges Aristotle s view of mimesis as expressive making into an understanding of literary works as deliberately designed sign systems belonging to Peirce s eighth class of signs In parallel with Bakhtin s account of the dialogical nature of literary work and its success in exposing misreadings of Dostoyevsky this work categorizes in precise theoretical terms what is wrong with the non dialogical readings which treat Plato s dialogues as doctrinal tractates As a study in literary theory finally and on the basis of apt distinctions between exhibitiv active and assertive judgments this book re demarcates and distinguishes the discipline of literary criticism from that of literary theory and both of these from the work of literary creation itself Rehabilitating Literary Theory Khaled Besbes, 2011 The present work seeks to bring literary theory in line with the most recent practical turn the humanities are witnessing When simplified succinctly presented and skillfully used in multi coded interpretation within a semiocritical framework literary theories become practical exercises in criticism not only facilitating the interpretation of literature but also making it more enjoyable and more rewarding This book is different from its counterparts in the sense that it includes an exceptionally expanded model of the practice of literary theories and replaces long and theoretical discussions with brief synopses of the examined theories It relies on less overused texts for illustration as it compiles and organizes the terms and phrases that are often used by the proponents of the discussed theories The most influential literary theories that have so far been developed in academia are included the New Criticism reader response criticism structuralism deconstruction feminism Marxism psychoanalytic criticism linguistic criticism cultural materialism new historicism postcolonialism and semiotics Through eliminating the excesses made in the name of theory this book will restore the faith of students teachers and practitioners in the useful and enduring nature of literary theory for the analysis and appreciation of literature Semiotics and Interpretation

Robert Scholes, 1982-01-01 The book offers a clutch of examples of semiotics usefully and intelligently applied which Scholes's patient cheerful tone and his resolutely concrete vocabulary manage to combine into a breezily informative American confection Terence Hawkes Times Literary Supplement Structuralism & Semiotics Terence Hawkes, 1977-01-01 This guide discusses the nature and development of structuralism and semiotics calling for a new critical awareness of the ways in which we communicate and drawing attention to their implications for our society Published in 1977 as the first volume in the New Accents series Structuralism and Semiotics made crucial debates in critical theory accessible to those with no prior knowledge of the field thus enacting its own small revolution Since then a generation of readers has used the book as an entry not only into structuralism and semiotics but into the wide range of cultural and critical theories underpinned by these approaches Structuralism and Semiotics remains the clearest introduction to some of the most important topics in modern critical theory An afterword and fresh suggestions for further reading ensure that this new edition will become like its predecessor the essential starting point for anyone new to the field BOOK JACKET

Biosemiotic Literary Criticism W. John Coletta, 2021-08-24 This volume is based to a large extent on the understanding of biosemiotic literary criticism as a semiotic model making enterprise For Jurij Lotman and Thomas A Sebeok nature writing is essentially a model of the relationship between humans and nature Timo Maran biosemiotic literary criticism itself a form of nature writing and thus itself an ecological niche making enterprise will be considered to be a model of modeling a model of nature naturing Modes and models of analysis drawn from Thomas A Sebeok and Marcel Danesi's Forms of Meaning Modeling Systems Theory and Semiotic Analysis as well as from Timo Maran's work on modeling the environment in literature Edwina Taborsky's writing on Peircean semiosis and of course Jesper Hoffmeyer's formative work in biosemiotics
