Sense And Non Sense Of Revolt The Powers And Limits Of Psychoanalysis:

The Sense and Non-Sense of Revolt Julia Kristeva, 2000 Linguist psychoanalyst and cultural theorist Julia Kristeva is one of the most influential and prolific thinkers of our time Her writings have broken new ground in the study of the self the mind and the ways in which we communicate through language Her work is unique in that it skillfully brings together psychoanalytic theory and clinical practice literature linguistics and philosophy In her latest book on the powers and limits of psychoanalysis Kristeva focuses on an intriguing new dilemma Freud and psychoanalysis taught us that rebellion is what guarantees our independence and our creative abilities But in our contemporary entertainment culture is rebellion still a viable option Is it still possible to build and embrace a counterculture For whom and against what and under what forms Kristeva illustrates the advances and impasses of rebel culture through the experiences of three twentieth century writers the existentialist John Paul Sartre the surrealist Louis Aragon and the theorist Roland Barthes For Kristeva the rebellions championed by these figures especially the political and seemingly dogmatic political commitments of Aragon and Sartre strike the post Cold War reader with a mixture of fascination and rejection These theorists according to Kristeva are involved in a revolution against accepted notions of identity of one's relation to others Kristeva places their accomplishments in the context of other revolutionary movements in art literature and politics The book also offers an illuminating discussion of Freud's groundbreaking work on rebellion focusing on the symbolic function of patricide in his Totem and Taboo and discussing his often neglected vision of language and underscoring its complex connection to the revolutionary drive

The Sense and Non-Sense of Revolt Julia Kristeva, 2024-05-21 Kristeva illustrates the advances and impasses of rebel culture through the experiences of three twentieth century writers the existentialist John Paul Sartre the surrealist Louis Aragon and the theorist Roland Barthes

Kristeva's Fiction Benigno Trigo, 2013-09-17 With published work spanning more than forty years Julia Kristeva's influence in psychoanalysis and literary theory is difficult to overstate In addition to this scholarship Kristeva has written several novels however this portion of her oeuvre has received comparatively scant attention In this book Kristeva scholars from a number of disciplines analyze her novels in relation to her work in psychoanalysis interrogating the relationships between fiction and theory The essays explore questions including what is the value of experimental writing that escapes easy definition and classification putting ideas at the same level as character pacing plot suspense form and style And how might such fiction help its readers overcome the psychological maladies that affect contemporary society The contributors make a compelling case for understanding Kristeva's fiction as a crucial influence to her wider psychoanalytic project

Geneses, Genealogies, Genres, and Genius Jacques Derrida, 2006 Jacques Derrida argues that the feminist and intellectual Hélène Cixous is the most important writer working within the French idiom today To prove this he elucidates the epistemological and historical interconnectedness of four terms genesis genealogy genre and genius and how they pertain to or are implicated in Cixous's work Derrida explores Cixous's genius a masculine term in French he is quick to point out and the inspiration that guides and informs her writing He marvels at her skillful working within multiple genres He focuses on a number of her works including her extraordinary novel Manhattan and her lyrical and evocative Dream I Tell You a book addressed to Derrida himself and one in which Cixous presents a series of her dreams Derrida also delves into the nature of the literary archive the production of literature and the importance of the poetic and sexual difference to the entirety of his own work For forty years Derrida had a close personal and intellectual relationship with Hélène Cixous Clever playful and eloquent Geneses Genealogies Genres and Genius charts the influence these two critical giants had on each other and is the most vital work to address Cixous's contribution to French thought

Entre Nous Emmanuel Lévinas, 1998 Emmanuel Levinas is one of the most important figures of twentieth century philosophy Exerting a profound influence upon such thinkers as Derrida Lyotard Blanchot and Irigaray Levinas's work bridges several major gaps in the evolution of continental philosophy between modern and postmodern phenomenology and poststructuralism ethics and ontology He is credited with having spurred a revitalized interest in ethics based philosophy throughout Europe and America Entre Nous Between Us is the culmination of Levinas's philosophy Published in France a few years before his death it gathers his most important work and reveals the development of his thought over nearly forty years of committed inquiry Along with several trenchant interviews published here these essays engage with issues of suffering love religion culture justice human rights and legal theory Taken together they constitute a key to Levinas's ideas on the ethical dimensions of otherness Working from the phenomenological method of Edmund Husserl and Martin Heidegger Levinas pushed beyond the limits of their framework to argue that it is ethics not ontology that orients philosophy and that responsibility precedes reasoning Ethics for Levinas means responsibility in relation to difference Throughout his work Levinas returns to the metaphor of the face of the other to discuss how and where responsibility enters our lives and makes philosophy necessary For Levinas ethics begins with our face to face interaction with another person seeing that person not as a reflection of one's self nor as a threat but as different and greater than self Levinas moves the reader to recognize the implications of this interaction our abiding responsibility for the other and our concern with the other's suffering and death Situated at the crossroads of several philosophical schools and approaches Levinas's work illuminates a host of critical issues and has found resonances among students and scholars of literature law religion and politics Entre Nous is at once the apotheosis of his work and an accessible introduction to it In the end Levinas's urgent meditations upon the face of the other suggest a new foundation upon which to grasp the nature of good and evil in the tangled skein of our lives

The Leprous Man Kate Simons, 2010 This book explores the extraordinarily violent and abusive nature of Stephen Donaldson's male protagonists Thomas Covenant of The Chronicles is a leper rotten and physically collapsing In Mordant's Need and The Gap series the male characters are moral lepers The Gap offers a Janus-faced male lead in the form of two men who are both multiple rapists The male hero in Mordant's Need is outwardly socially acceptable but his alter egos are overly corporeal and sexually obsessed In spite of their unappealing condition all these protagonists yearn to be loved Using the psychoanalytical theories of Julia Kristeva this book identifies reasons for Donaldson's derogatory characterization and provides an insight into why these novels cannot allow their male protagonists to establish viable love relationships This study also explains why maternal characters are jettisoned from the narratives considers the problematic nature of father figures and examines the incipient undertow of psychosis

Virginia Woolf and the Ethics of Intimacy Elsa Högberg, 2020-02-06 Revisiting Virginia Woolf's most experimental novels Elsa Högberg explores how Woolf's writing prompts us to re-examine the meaning of intimacy In Högberg's readings of Jacob's Room Mrs Dalloway To the Lighthouse and The Waves intimacy is revealed to inhere not just in close relations with the ones we know and love but primarily within those unsettling encounters which suspend our comfortable sense of ourselves as separate from others and the world around us Virginia Woolf and the Ethics of Intimacy locates this radical notion of intimacy at the heart of Woolf's introspective modernist poetics as well as her ethical and political resistance to violence aggressive nationalism and fascism Engaging contemporary theory particularly the more recent works of Judith Butler Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva it reads Woolf as a writer and ethical thinker whose vital contribution to the modernist scene of inter-war Britain is strikingly relevant to critical debates around intimacy affect violence and vulnerability in our own time

Transversal Rationality and Intercultural Texts Hwa Yol Jung, 2011-04-22 Transversality is the keyword that permeates the spirit of these thirteen essays spanning almost half a century from 1965 to 2009 The essays are exploratory and experimental in nature and are meant to be a transversal linkage between phenomenology and East Asian philosophy Transversality is the concept that dispels all ethnocentrisms including Eurocentrism In the globalizing world of multiculturalism Eurocentric universalism falls far short of being universal but simply parochial at the expense of the non-Western world Transversality is intercultural interspecific interdisciplinary and intersensorial Transversal Rationality and Intercultural Texts means to transform the very way of philosophizing itself by infusing or hybridizing multiple traditions in the history of the world Like no other scholar Jung bridges the gap between Asian and Western cultures By engaging Western philosophers as diverse as Bacon Descartes Heidegger Hegel Merleau Ponty Derrida Glissant Barthes Fenollosa McLuhan and Eastern philosophers such as Wang Yang ming Nishida Kitaro Nishitani Keiji Watsuji Tetsuro Nhat Hanh and Suzuki Daisetz Teitaro this book marks an unparalleled contribution to comparative philosophy and the study of philosophy itself Beckett, Literature and the Ethics of Alterity S. Weller, 2006-05-25 In Beckett Literature and the Ethics of Alterity Weller argues through an analysis of the interrelated topics of translation comedy and gender that to read Beckett in this way is to miss the strangely unethical nature of his work as opposed to the notion that the literary event constitutes the affirmation of an alterity Communities of Peace. Danielle Poe, 2011-04 This volume examines the many ways in which violence domination and oppression manifest themselves This examination opens the way to creative suggestions for overcoming injustice The authors in this volume also describe the features of a just community and inspire readers to implement peaceful transformation Angela Carter: New Critical Readings Sonya Andermahr, Lawrence Phillips, 2012-10-11 Covering her early poetry and journalism as well as her fictional writings leading international scholars explore new directions in scholarship on Angela Carter Philosophy and the Arts Bert Olivier, 2009 This collection of philosophical essays addresses important issues in the arts encompassing painting sculpture photography film and architecture The author's point of departure is the conviction that art in all its manifestations is an extremely significant cultural practice because it embodies a creative reflective appropriation of social political economic religious historical and ecological developments and as such merits close philosophical scrutiny reflection and interpretation The question of whether painting is still a viable artistic practice in our technocratic society is considered here and it is no accident that both this issue and that of artificial intelligence are approached from the perspective of the phenomenological thought of Maurice Merleau Ponty among other thinkers Equally important is the consideration of the relationship between art and the ethical as highlighted by significant recent artistic events as well as discussion of the transformational influence of ecological art and the culturally symptomatic meaning of kitsch Other themes discussed include play and artistic tradition formulating a suitable model for art beyond Kierkegaard's aesthetic and ethical models the meaning of 9 11 for architecture and Lyotard's claim that today only an aesthetic of the sublime instead of the beautiful can help us make sense of art Hatred and Forgiveness Julia Kristeva, 2025-03-04 Julia Kristeva refracts the impulse to hate and our attempts to subvert sublimate and otherwise process it through psychoanalysis and text exploring worlds women religion portraits and the act of writing Her inquiry spans themes topics and figures central to her writing and her paths of discovery advance the theoretical innovations that are so characteristic of her thought Kristeva rearticulates and extends her analysis of language abjection idealization female sexuality love and forgiveness She examines the maladies of the soul utilizing examples from her practice and the ailments of her patients such as fatigue irritability and general malaise She sources the Bible and texts by Marguerite Duras St Teresa of vila Roland Barthes Simone de Beauvoir and Georgia O Keefe Balancing political calamity and individual pathology she addresses internal and external catastrophes and global and personal injuries confronting the nature of depression obliviousness fear and the agony of being and nothingness Throughout Kristeva develops the notion that psychoanalysis is the key to serenity with its processes of turning back looking back investigating the self and refashioning psychical damage into something useful and beautiful Constant questioning Kristeva contends is essential to achieving the coming to terms we all seek at the core of forgiveness

The Severed Head Julia Kristeva, 2025-03-04 Informed by a provocative exhibition at the Louvre curated by the author The Severed Head unpacks artistic representations of severed heads from the Paleolithic period to the present Surveying paintings sculptures and drawings Julia Kristeva turns her famed critical eye to a study of the head as symbol and metaphor as religious object and physical fact further developing a critical theme in her work the power of horror and the potential for the face to provide an experience of the sacred Kristeva considers the head as icon artifact and locus of thought seeking a keener understanding of the violence and desire that drives us to sever and in some cases keep such a potent object Her study stretches all the way back to 6 000 B C E with humans early decoration and worship of skulls and follows with the Medusa myth the mandylion of Laon a holy relic in which the face of a saint appears on a piece of cloth the biblical story of John the Baptist and his counterpart Salome tales of the guillotine modern murder mysteries and even the rhetoric surrounding the fight for and against capital punishment Kristeva interprets these capital visions through the lens of psychoanalysis drawing infinite connections between their manifestation and sacred experience and very much affirming the possibility of the sacred even in an era of faceless interaction

Everyone Dies Young Marc Augé, 2016-05-24 We are awash in time savoring a few moments of it we project ourselves into it reinvent it play with it we take our time or let it slip away it is the raw material of our imagination Age on the other hand is the detailed account of the days that pass the one way view of the years whose total sum when set forth can stupefy us Age wedges each of us between a date of birth that at least in the West we know for certain and an expiration date that as a general rule we would like to defer Time is a freedom age a constraint Marc Aug remembers his beloved childhood cat who seemed to grow wise with age though her essential nature remained unchanged He considers our belief that objects mature when it is our perception of them that evolves over time He wonders why public demonstrations of affection between the elderly make the young so uncomfortable and why we torture ourselves with regret at what might have been Time can be liberating he finds it is a resource we can squander or relish Yet age is a burden bound by our personal and cultural neuroses With an ethnologist s understanding of construct and practice Aug isolates age from the development of consciousness desire and representations of the self In bold eye opening strokes he casts age as a physical marker and treats one's youthful approach to the world as the true measure of life's value
