Provisionality and the Poem Emma Wagstaff,2006 Much poetic writing in France in the post 1945 period is set in an elemental landscape and expressed through an impersonal poetic voice It is therefore often seen as primarily spatial and cut off from human concerns This study of three poets Andre du Bouchet Philippe Jaccottet and Bernard Noel who have not been compared before argues that space is inseparable from time in their work which is always in transition The different ways in which the provisional operates in their writing show the wide range of forms that modern poetry can take an insistence on the figure of the interval hesitant movement or exuberant impulse As well as examining the imaginative universes of the poets through close attention to the texts this book considers the important contribution they have made in their prose writing to our understanding of the visual arts and poetry translation in themselves transitional activities It argues that these writers have in different ways succeeded in creating poetic worlds that attest to close and constantly changing contact with the real Emma Wagstaff teaches French literature at Trinity College Cambridge

Myth and the Sacred in the Poetry of Guillevic Stella Harvey,2023-11-20 The sacred occupies a central place in the poetry of Guillevic who described himself as a mat rialiste religieux This study informed by anthropological and psychoanalytical thought examines the evolution of this aspect of his oeuvre from Terraqu 1942 through to the poet s last works and focuses in particular on the relation between the sacred and the mother figure A semiotic approach is used for close textual analysis of key poems Guillevic s poetic endeavour is conceived as an archaeological quest whereby the presence of the archaic within the domain of the real is disclosed and mythical patterns emerge The re enactment of the cosmogony the performance of ritual and the process of mourning all crucial to poetic creativity itself are identified as motivating forces through which the poet seeks reparation of the mother This study will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as to teachers of French literature and will provide a useful introduction to those who may be unfamiliar with the unique voice of this major 20th century poet
