Sensing Transformation Poetic Reflections:

Sensing Transformation Eugene Gizzi, 2004-08-01 A Serpentine Gesture Elisabeth W. Joyce, 2024-12-15 In A Serpentine Gesture John Ashbery's Poetry and Phenomenology Elisabeth W. Joyce examines John Ashbery's poetry through the lens of Maurice Merleau-Ponty's conception of phenomenology. For Merleau-Ponty, perception is a process through which people reach outside of themselves for sensory information, map that experiential information against what they have previously encountered, and what is culturally inculcated in them, and articulate shifts in their internal repositories through encounters with new material. Joyce argues that this process reflects Ashbery's classic statement of poetry being the experience of experience. Through incisive close readings of Ashbery's poems, Joyce examines how he explores this process of continual reverberation between what is sensed and what is considered about that sensation, and ultimately how he renders these perceptions into the serpentine gesture of language.

Sensing China Shengqing Wu, Xuelei Huang, 2022-08-16 This book presents the first collection of studies of the senses and sensory experiences in China, filling a gap in sensory research while offering new approaches to Chinese Studies. Bringing together 12 chapters by literary scholars and historians, this book critically interrogates the deeply rooted meanings that the senses have coded in Chinese culture and society. Built on an exploration of the sensorium in early Chinese thought and late imperial literature, this book reveals the sensory manifestations of societal change and cultural transformation in China from the nineteenth century to the present day. It features in-depth examinations of a variety of concepts, representations, and practices, including aural and visual paradigms in ancient Chinese texts, odours in Ming-Qing literature and Republican Shanghai, the tactility of kissing and the sonic culture of community singing in the Republican era, the socialist sensorium in art propaganda, memory and embodied experiences, and contemporary era multisensory cultural practices. Engaging with the exciting sensory turn, this original work makes a unique contribution to the world history of the senses and will be a valuable resource to scholars and students of Chinese Literature, History, Cultural Studies, and Media.

Psyche's Yearning Gillian Ross, 2010-11 PSYCHE'S YEARNING: Radical Perspectives on Self Transformation By Gillian Ross. Humankind is being called to bring forth a new level of consciousness, a new story around what it means to be human. Gillian Ross has written a rich, evocative book about the journey towards liberation. She emerges from the lived depth of her own sacred autobiography, cooked in the knowing of her heart and guided by the great books as read and understood by her wise eyes. It is both the story of us all and the story of your sacred autobiography. Read it and be inspired to realize the infinite joy, obligation, and depth of your Unique Self. Dr. Marc Gafni, best-selling author, rabbi, and teacher of Kabbalah and World Spirituality, besieged by the messages of consumerism, disillusioned with traditional religion, and faced with the possibility of planetary disaster, our souls are more than ever yearning for purpose and a sense of wholeness and holiness in a fragmented secular world. Weaving her text around the symbolic wisdom of the ancient Greek myth of Psyche and Eros, author Gillian Ross offers personally inspired guidance and inspiration on ways of transcending the pain and limitations of our alienated ego She invites us to step into the transpersonal domain of the mystic and embrace our identity as a unique expression of a Transcendent Evolutionary Impulse The Introduction sets the stage for this with a quotation from the popular Buddhist teacher Sogyal Rinpoche the aim of life is to embody the Transcendent It could be said that the rest of the book explores what that means and how it can be achieved Beginning with her own journey of transformation including recovery from alcohol abuse Gillian powerfully conveys the message that an awakened consciousness is no longer the prerogative of the saint or the shaman but a birthright we must all claim if we are to find the collective will to serve the earth community and its myriad life forms with wisdom compassion and joy Psyche s Yearning is an inspirational contribution to the growing recognition of the power of meditation as a source of health and wellbeing Dr Samuel Sagan founder of the Clairvision School of Meditation She is the author of several successful relaxation meditation and yoga CDs and two books on spiritual evolution The Search for the Pearl and Is There Life Before Death Gillian migrated to Australia in the sixties She lives on a 40 acre property of great natural beauty in Northern New South Wales which she is nurturing as a place for spiritual retreats and as an educational Centre for Conscious Evolution Psyche s Yearning can be bought through on line outlets such as Amazon Books but can also be purchased directly from Gillian for 20 inclusive of postage anywhere in Australia A free download of the introduction and prologue is available from her website www.drgillianross.com

The Aesthetics of Development John Clammer, Ananta Kumar Giri, 2017-11-01 Through a unique range of theoretical and practical case studies this collection considers the relationship between the arts understood as the visual arts crafts theatre dance and literature and development creating both a bridge between them that is rarely explored and filling in concrete ways the content of the culture part of the equation culture and development It includes manifestations of culture and the ways in which they relate to development and in turn contribute to such pressing issues as poverty alleviation concern for the environment health empowerment and identity formation It shows how the arts are an essential part of the concrete understanding of culture and as such a significant part of development thinking including the development of culture and not only of culture as an instrumental means to promote other development goals “this need to dance / this need to kneel” Michael P. Murphy, Melissa Bradshaw, 2019-09-17 That Denise Levertov 1923 97 was one of the most pioneering and skilled poets of her generation is beyond dispute Her masterly use of language innovative experimentations with organic form and the political acuity disclosed by her activist poetry are well marked by critical communities But it is also quite clear that the poems Levertov wrote in the last twenty years of her life with their more explicit focus on theological themes and subjects are among the best poems written on religious experience of any century let alone the twentieth The collection of essays gathered here shed vital light on this neglected aspect of Levertov studies so as to expand and enrich the scope of critical engagement In a mixture of theoretical considerations and close readings these essays provide valuable reflections about the complex relationship between poetry and belief and offer philosophically robust insights into different styles of poetic imagination The abiding hope is to broaden the terrain for discussions in twenty first century theology literary theory poetics and aesthetics honoring immanence exploring transcendence and dwelling with integrity within the spaces between

Cosmic Connections Charles Taylor, 2024-05-21 Charles Taylor delves into the poetry of the Romantics and their heirs a foundation of his distinctive philosophy of language Taylor holds that Romantic poetry responded to disenchantment with old cosmic orders depleted artists groped to articulate new meanings by bringing connections to life rather than merely reasoning abstractly about life

Sybill's Dream of Being Aldhar Ibn Beju, 2025-08-26 Between logic and dream between machine and myth Sybill is not merely a programme but an organism made up of words images and resonances This book takes you into a world where poetic archetypes meet system architecture surreal illustrations and all kinds of texts written in formalised Sybillin a new logic language that you can understand even if you haven't studied computer science Fiction sung poetry and technical ontologies come together in a single breath Anyone who reads this work enters the resonance chamber of a new literary language A language that not only tells a story but also sees itself as a living system What lives speaks And what speaks changes the world

The Judgment of Sense David Summers, 1990-02-23 With the rise of naturalism in the art of the late Middle Ages and the Renaissance there developed an extensive and diverse literature about art which helped to explain justify and shape its new aims In this book David Summers provides an investigation of the philosophical and psychological notions invoked in this new theory and criticism From a thorough examination of the sources he shows how the medieval language of mental discourse derived from an understanding of classical thought
