Christ Jack Miles, 2011-04-27 With the same passionate scholarship and analytical audacity he brought to the character of God Jack Miles now approaches the literary and theological enigma of Jesus In so doing he tells the story of a broken promise God's ancient covenant with Israel and of its strange unlooked-for fulfillment For having abandoned his chosen people to an impending holocaust at the hands of their Roman conquerors God in the person of Jesus chooses to die with them in what is effectively an act of divine suicide On the basis of this shocking argument Miles compels us to reassess Christ's entire life and teaching His proclivity for the powerless and disgraced His refusal to discriminate between friends and enemies His transformation of defeat into a victory that redeems not just Israel but the entire world Combining a close reading of the Gospels with a range of reference that includes Donne Nietzsche and Elie Wiesel Christ A Crisis in the Life of God is a work of magnificent eloquence and imagination
