some of Finster's contemporaries the self taught evangelical artists whose beliefs and oeuvres occupy the gray area between madness and Christian ecstasy With his prodigious gift for conversation and quietly observant storytelling Bottoms draws us into the worlds of such figures as William Thomas Thompson a handicapped ex millionaire who painted a 300 foot version of the book of Revelation Norbert Kox an ex member of the Outlaws biker gang who now lives as a recluse in rural Wisconsin and paints apocalyptic visual parables and Myrtice West who began painting to express the revelatory visions she had after her daughter was brutally murdered These artists works are as wildly varied as their life stories but without sensationalizing or patronizing them Bottoms one of today's finest young writers gets at the heart of what they have in common the struggle to make sense through art of their difficult personal histories In doing so he weaves a true narrative as powerful as the art of its subjects a work that is at once an enthralling travelogue a series of revealing biographical portraits and a profound meditation on the chaos of despair and the ways in which creativity can help order our lives Poets & Writers, 2007
