George Webber hung out in Calgary's East Village. In what he describes as my little personal battle against time he touched the feral heart of the place capturing its gritty shattered beauty with his camera. Last Call is an unforgettable and astounding collection of colour photographs of Calgary's East Village in all of its lurid glory along with touching and poignant excerpts from Webber's journals. Duty, Honor, and A Loaf of Bread Jan (Waldron) & Ed Votroubek, 2012-10-31 Like other families letters were the fabric that held the fledgling Waldron family together during the personally trying society changing events of World War II. Bill the town baker voluntarily became an infantry soldier and platoon scout in Europe and Marge a new wife became the town baker the Waldron's version of Rosie the Riveter. Nothing in their lives had prepared them for these roles yet everything in their lives made them equal to the tasks at hand. Their letters to one another provide an intimate view of an American family triumphing in the face of adversity. Duty Honor Faith Love and Family all play a role and readers will come to love and admire both of them. Bill's letters from the Battle of the Bulge the Siegfried Line and through the end of the war across Germany and into Czechoslovakia are particularly interesting. He reveals himself as a down to earth patriot who volunteered for a very dangerous job and excelled. A man with survivor's instincts who avoided illness frostbite and wounds under extremely difficult circumstances. Historical perspective is provided by sidebars throughout the book which explain matters referred to in the letters as well as what is going on in the war and at home. The sidebars are themselves an education made immediate and interesting by the personal experiences conveyed in the letters. A really great read. When Words Matter Most Robyn Freedman Spizman, 2007-12-18 This book explores the art of finding the right words and actions at the right time. Spizman focuses on how to use words wisely and well in both difficult and joyful times allaying the common fear people have of appearing foolish or inadequate when they want their words to make a difference. Robert Creeley is one of the most celebrated and influential of the postwar American poets. His Selected Letters covering the years 1945-2005 are a foundational document in the recent history of North American letters. Through his engagements with mentors such as William Carlos Williams and Ezra Pound, peers such as Charles Olson, Robert Duncan, Denise Levertov, Allen Ginsberg, and Jack Kerouac, and mentees such as Charles Bernstein, Anselm Berrigan, Ed Dorn, Susan Howe, and Tom Raworth, Creeley helped forge a new poetry that reimagined writing for his and subsequent generations.
