Sermons On National Subjects:

Sermons On National Subjects Charles Kingsley, 2023-12-01 Sermons on National Subjects is a collection of sermons written by Charles Kingsley a 19th century English clergyman social reformer and writer This book exemplifies Kingsley's ongoing dedication to tackling key social and political issues of his time via the lens of his Christian ministry Some stories are brutal and weird while others sneak up on you and gradually imbibe you in Some stories are fascinating and fantastic while others creep up on you and draw you in The plot is full of twists and turns that will keep the reader interested As the titular character is so self indulgent readers are forced to keep reading to find out what happens next Kingsley tackles a wide range of national themes in Sermons on National Subjects including social justice labor reform the role of the Church in society and the obligations of individuals and nations He uses his position of power to advocate for progressive social reform and better working class circumstances Another major focus of the sermons is the concept of Christian duty in the face of social problems Kingsley encourages his audience to participate actively in activities aimed at alleviating poverty promoting education and combating social injustice

Collected Works of Charles Kingsley: Sermons on national subjects Charles Kingsley, 1890 Sermons on National Subjects Charles Kingsley, 1852 Sermons on National Subjects Charles Kingsley, 2014-03-08 Sermons on National Subjects The Love of Christ By Charles Kingsley These may seem strange words but almost every one is saying them in his own way One large party among religious people in these days is complaining that Christ has left His Church and that the cause of Christianity will be ruined and lost unless some great change takes place Another large party of religious people say that the prophecies are on the point of being all fulfilled that the 1260 days spoken of by the prophet Daniel are just coining to an end and that Christ is coming with His saints to reign openly upon earth for a thousand years The wisest philosophers and historians of late years have been all foretelling a great and tremendous change in England and throughout all Europe and in the meantime manufacturers and landlords tradesmen and farmers artisans and labourers all say that there must be a change and will be a change I believe they are all right every one of them They put it in their words I think it better to put it in the Scripture words and say boldly Jesus Christ the King of the earth is coming But you will ask What right have you to stand up and say anything so surprising My friends the world is full of surprising things and this age above all ages It was not sixty years ago that a nobleman was laughed at in the House of Lords for saying that he believed that we should one day see ships go by steam and now there are steamers on every sea and ocean in the world Who expected twenty years ago to see the whole face of England covered with these wonderful railroads Who expected on the 22nd of February last year that within a single month half the nations of Europe which looked so quiet and secure would be shaken from top to bottom with revolution and bloodshed kings and princes vanishing one after the other like a dream poor men sitting for a day as rulers of kingdoms and then hurled down again to make room for other rulers as unexpected as themselves Can anyone consider the last fifty years can anyone consider that one last year 1848 and then not feel that we do live in a most strange and awful time a time for which nothing is too surprising a time in which we all ought to be prepared from the least to the greatest to see the greatest horrors and the greatest blessings come suddenly upon us like a thief in the night So much for Christ s coming being too wonderful a thing to happen just now Still you are right to ask What do you mean by Christ s being our King what do you mean by His coming to us What reason have you for supposing that He is coming now rather than at any other time And if He be coming what are we to do What is there we ought to repent of what is there we ought to amend Christian Life Spiritual Growth Christian Education Christian Sermons Bible Study Sermons on National Subjects (Classic Reprint) Charles Kingsley,2016-10-17 Excerpt from Sermons on National Subjects Have just said that I am one of those who think the end of the world is at hand It may be for aught I About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works *Six-preacher sermons; including the subjects of national education, the Church of England view of Lent-duties and services, and the life and ministry of st. being This compelling work not only illuminates the historical context of Victorian social thought but also challenges us to reflect on our responsibilities towards our nation and fellow citizens Sermons on National Subjects - Charles Kingsley

Charles Kingsley, 2009-12-08 A passage from the book This Sunday is the first of the four Sundays in Advent During those four Sundays our forefathers have advised us to think seriously of the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ not that we should neglect to think of it at all times As some of you know I have preached to you about it often lately Perhaps before the end of Advent you will all of you more or less understand what all that I have said about the cholera and public distress and the sins of this nation and the sins of the labouring people has to do with the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ But I intend especially in my next four sermons to speak my whole mind to you about this matter as far as God has shown it to me taking the Collect Epistle and Gospels for each Sunday in Advent and explaining them I am sure I cannot do better for the more I see of those Collects Epistles and Gospels and the way in which they are arranged the more I am astonished and delighted at the wisdom with which they are chosen the wise order in which they follow each other and fit into each other It is very fit too that we should think of our Lord s coming at this season of the year above all others because it is the hardest season the season of most want and misery and discontent when wages are low and work is scarce and fuel is dear and frosts are bitter and farmers and tradesmen and gentlemen too are at their wits end to square their accounts and pay their way Then is the time that the evils of society come home to us that our sins and our sorrows which after all are the punishment of our sins stare us in the face Sermons on National Subjects, by Charles Kingsley (Classic Books) Charles Kingsley, 2016-08-03 This Sunday is the first of the four Sundays in Advent During those four Sundays our forefathers have advised us to think seriously of the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ Charles Kingsley 12 June 1819 23 January 1875 was a broad church priest of the Church of England a university professor social reformer historian and novelist He is particularly associated with Christian socialism the working men s college and forming labour cooperatives that failed but led to the working reforms of the progressive era He was a friend and correspondent with Charles Darwin ingsley was born in Holne Devon the elder of two sons of the Reverend Charles Kingsley and his wife Mary Lucas Kingsley His brother Henry Kingsley also became a novelist He spent his childhood in Clovelly Devon where his father was Curate 1826 1832 and Rector 1832 1836 and at Barnack Northamptonshire and was educated at Bristol Grammar School and Helston Grammar School before studying at King s College London and the University of Cambridge Charles entered Magdalene College Cambridge in 1838 and graduated in 1842 He chose to pursue a ministry in the church From 1844 he was rector of Eversley in Hampshire In 1859 he was appointed chaplain to Queen Victoria In 1860 he was appointed Regius Professor of Modern History at the University of Cambridge In 1861 he became a private tutor to the Prince of Wales In 1869 Kingsley resigned his Cambridge professorship and from 1870 to 1873 was a canon of Chester Cathedral While in Chester he founded the Chester Society for Natural Science Literature and Art which played an important part in the establishment of the Grosvenor Museum In 1872 he accepted the Presidency of the

Birmingham and Midland Institute and became its 19th President In 1873 he was made a canon of Westminster Abbey Kingsley died in 1875 and was buried in St Mary's Churchyard in Eversley Kingsley sat on the 1866 Edward Eyre Defence Committee along with Thomas Carlyle John Ruskin Charles Dickens and Alfred Lord Tennyson where he supported Jamaican Governor Edward Eyre's brutal suppression of the Morant Bay Rebellion against the Jamaica Committee One of his daughters Mary St Leger Kingsley became known as a novelist under the pseudonym Lucas Malet Kingsley's life was written by his widow in 1877 entitled Charles Kingsley his Letters and Memories of his Life Kingsley also received letters from Thomas Huxley in 1860 and later in 1863 discussing Huxley's early ideas on agnosticism Sermons on National Subjects (Esprios Classics) Charles Kingsley, 2022-03-14 Charles Kingsley 12 June 1819 23 January 1875 was a broad church priest of the Church of England a university professor social reformer historian novelist and poet He is particularly associated with Christian socialism the working men's college and forming labour cooperatives which failed but encouraged later working reforms He was a friend and correspondent of Charles Darwin Kingsley's interest in history is shown in several of his writings including The Heroes 1856 a children's book about Greek mythology and several historical novels of which the best known are Hypatia 1853 Hereward the Wake 1865 and Westward Ho 1855 The King of the Earth Charles Kingsley, 2023-03-18 Reprint of the original first published in 1872 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost Sermons on National Subjects Charles Kingsley, 1872
