December 2001 sixty two year old Germaine Greer found herself confronted by an irresistible challenge in the shape of sixty hectares of dairy farm one of many in south east Queensland that after a century of logging clearing and downright devastation had been abandoned to their fate She didn't think for a minute that by restoring the land she was saving the world She was in search of heart's ease Beyond the acres of exotic pasture grass and soft weed and the impenetrable curtains of tangled Lantana canes there were Macadamias dangling their strings of unripe nuts and Black Beans with red and yellow pea flowers growing on their branches and the few remaining White Beeches stupendous trees up to forty metres in height logged out within forty years of the arrival of the first white settlers To have turned down even a faint chance of bringing them back to their old haunts would have been to succumb to despair Once the process of rehabilitation had begun the chance proved to be a dead certainty When the first replanting shot up to make a forest and rare caterpillars turned up to feed on the leaves of the new young trees she knew beyond doubt that at least here biodepletion could be reversed Greer describes herself as an old dog who succeeded in learning a load of new tricks inspired and rejuvenated by her passionate love of Australia and of Earth most exuberant of small planets Catalog of Periodical Literature, Journals and Transactions of Learned Societies, Issues from Government and Private Presses, Collections Bernard Quaritch, 2024-05-24 Reprint of the original first published in 1882 Monthly Review George Edward Griffiths, 1789 A Catalogue of an Extensive and Curious Collection of Books in Every Language, and Class of Literature; Containing Two Entire Valuable Libraries, ...
