Servant Leaders Of The People Of God An Ecclesial Spirituality For American Priests:

Servant Leaders of the People of God Robert Morris Schwartz, 1989 A spirituality of the American priesthood based on the documents of Vatican II and the teaching of the U S bishops

The Spirituality of the Diocesan Priest Donald B. Cozzens, 1997 Beyond the dramatic drop in seminarians and the declining numbers of priests beyond the sexual misconduct scandals shaking the confidence and trust once readily given to priests a spiritual deepening and maturing is renewing the spirit and confidence of the diocesan priest In this collection of essays twelve priests including four bishops reflect on the spirituality of the diocesan priest from their personal and pastoral experience Have diocesan priests finally transcended the monastic and religious order spiritualities that have shaped their prayer and interior lives for centuries Is a spirituality particular to the diocesan priest emerging precisely at a time when the priesthood is under such close scrutiny The contributors pastors theologians poets and bishops grapple with the maturing of the diocesan priest s soul touch the mystery of the priesthood and unveil personal often moving dramas of grace Contributors and their articles include Tenders of the Word by Donald B Cozzens Personal Symbol of Communion by Denis Edwards Confessions of a Pilgrim Pastor by William Hammer A Kindled Heart by Frank McNulty A Glorious and Transcendent Place by Robert F Morneau The Conciliar Documents and the 1983 Code by Edward G Pfnausch Ruminations of a Canonist by James H Provost Heralds of the Gospel and Experts in Humanity by Sylvester D Ryan Servant of the Servants of God by Robert Schwartz Speaking Out for the Inside by William H Shannon Paul of Tarsus A Model for Diocesan Priesthood by Richard J Sklba and Spirituality of the Diocesan Priest Using the Wrong Measure by Kenneth Untener

Stewards of God's Mysteries Paul J. Philibert, Melvin Blanchette, Daniel E. Danielson, 2004 This study of priestly spirituality at the start of a new millennium considers how priests participate in the dying and rising of the Lord through challenges and joys that are rooted in our changing culture in the growing diversity of our Catholic world and in the demands of their own ministry Designed as a study text these pages contain reflection questions for both individuals and study groups of bishops superiors and priests

The Voice of the Bridegroom Benjamin A. Roberts, 2021-02-02 Preaching is a relational act This book explores the relationship between the preacher and the assembly as a spousal relationship Written by a parish pastor with a doctorate in preaching and rooted in the Roman Catholic notion of the priest as bridegroom of the church this work examines characteristics of the spousal relationship between husband and wife and then provides an analysis of the ministerial priesthood through this nuptial lens This nuptial reflection on the ministerial priesthood is then applied to preaching This book presents a nuptial hermeneutic or vision for preaching and the implications of this vision for the assembly the preacher the homily and the homiletical method The appendices include a one page strategy for preaching summarizing the homiletical method a rubric for homily evaluation by members of the assembly and two sample homilies

The Crisis of Authority in Catholic Modernity Michael J. Lacey, Francis Oakley, 2011-04-06 One deep problem facing the Catholic church is the question of how its teaching authority is understood today It is fairly clear that while Rome continues to teach as if its authority were unchanged from the days before Vatican II 1962-65 the majority of Catholics within the first world church at least take a far more independent line and increasingly understand themselves rather than the church as the final arbiters of decision making especially on ethical questions This collection of essays explores the historical background and present ecclesial situation explaining the dramatic shift in attitude on the part of contemporary Catholics in the U S and Europe The overall purpose is neither to justify nor to repudiate the authority of the church's hierarchy but to cast some light on the context within which it operates the complexities and ambiguities of the historical tradition of belief and behavior it speaks for and the kinds of limits it confronts consciously or otherwise The authors do not hope to fix problems although some of the essays make suggestions but to contribute to a badly needed intra Catholic dialogue without which they believe problems will continue to fester and solutions will remain elusive

Priesthood in the Modern World Karen Sue Smith, 1999 Coming to terms with more than cultural shifts and grim statistics this collection of essays looks at the challenge of priestly ministry that is collaborative and communal

A Concert of Charisms Paul Kevin Hennessy, 1997 Essays that take various approaches to the tensions that have arisen since Vatican II concerning the original mission and charisms of a religious order and today's actual situations of living within a parish

Ministry in the Church 2nd Edition Paul Bernier, 2015-12-01

Spirituality in Ministerial Formation Andrew Mayes, 2009-10-01 This is a ground breaking study into a crucial area of theological education It traces the origin and evolution of the formation model of training and identifies what difference this paradigm makes to present practice It uncovers significant and surprising functions of prayer in the formational and learning process as discovered in empirical research informed by theological and psychological perspectives on prayer among a sample of newly ordained clergy and tutors The practical implications of the research are identified offering creative ideas for a renewed understanding and praxis of the role of prayer in learning This is essential reading for theological students and teachers alike and calls for a clearer articulation of a spirituality of education as needed by our present culture and context

The Challenges of Vatican II for an Authentic Indian Catholic Church Suhas Pereira, 2021 The Vatican II was an event of a new facelift for the entire edifice of the Catholic ecclesiology It called for the renewal in the universal Catholic Church This book deals with the question How can the Catholic Church in India accept the council's challenge for renewal and become truly Indian in its being and essence Undertaking a systematic examination of the post conciliar ecclesiological development in the Indian Catholic Church in its existential multi religious and multi cultural context the author attempts to develop an ecclesiological reflection for the Indian context

Who Do We Think We Are? Christopher A. Fallon, 2015-02-26 This empirical study explores how the sampled priests understand their priesthood Chris A Fallon reviews Liverpool's history of expansion and decline which has left fewer and older priests serving fewer active Catholics and an undiminished number who still require baptisms first communions marriages and funerals It contrasts the models of priesthood found in Liverpool with

Foster, 1997-12-31 Explore a variety of approaches congregations have taken to embrace differences identify leadership issues diversity creates in congregations and discover programmatic suggestions drawn from the experience of multicultural congregations to address these issues This book helps readers to understand their own experience with racial and cultural differences and is a guide for gathering diverse people into the life and mission of the congregation Manufacturing the Employee Roy Jacques, 1995-12-21 Contemporary thinking about management is still frequently presented as a set of universal eternal verities In this fascinating book Roy Jacques presents a discursive history of industrial work relationships in the United States which powerfully demonstrates that they are not A central concern is to show that current common sense in management forms an historically and culturally specific way of thinking about work and society which is often inappropriate for managing for the twenty first century The author is equally interested in revealing the cultural basis for American management ideas currently exported round the world as an objective science disconnected from its cultural and historical roots Roy Jacques considers the Federalist world of the U S c 1800 1870 and the traces of 19th century pre management notions continuing in 20th century management and industrial discourse the emergence and development of industrial organization and big business the profound remapping of the boundaries of social life which occurred with the creation of jobs and wages and the evolving construction of the employee as increasingly a disciplinary subject of psychological personnel and general management knowledge He also looks at several major current management and organizational topics such as motivation leadership and power in organizations productivity and efficiency work and the family ideas about Total Quality Management Business Process Re engineering knowledge work and so on Another Christ Andrew Mayes, 2014-10-16 Growth in Christlikeness is a goal for all Christians and especially for those in leadership But the images of Christ that have become the institutional norm refer to a model of pastoral ministry that seems to allow no scope for innovation or eccentricity In this riveting book Andrew Mayes explores how the first century setting of Jesus reveals his identity as builder hermit rebel mystic reveller jester iconoclast revealer and enigma liberator traveller and mentor brother and trail blazer The aim of Another Christ is to encourage us to see how these images can inform the practice and spirituality of leadership today and to this end each chapter ends with a set of penetrating questions and ideas for further reading The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2008

Spirituality in Ministerial Formation Andrew D. Mayes,2009 In recent years theological education and training for both lay and ordained ministry have been reconceived in terms of ministerial formation But what is the origin of this paradigm and what difference does it actually make to both teachers and learners This study not only addresses these questions but also offering perspectives from the Eastern Christian traditions and from empirical research uncovers a dynamic role for prayer in the learning process It explores how different types of prayer have the potential to be a significant integrative cognitive healing empowering influence in ministerial formation and to enable a transformative process of deep learning It will prove not only to be a reference book for all practitioners in the field of theological education but also a practical workbook for teachers and students as its questions for individual or group use challenge present practice and open up new possibilities for the healing of the historic divide between theology and spirituality The book identifies elements for the development of a rich theology of ministerial formation which will enhance and energize the practice of theological education Seeking to re balance training and formation it invites a rethink of current functionalist approaches to professionalized lay and ordained ministry in terms of discovering creative and surprising functions of spirituality within the learning process The book thus has implications for the teaching of spirituality highlighting the need to articulate an integrated spirituality of education It also addresses important aspects of the Church s mission in society and the imperative of resourcing clergy and lay ministers for their engagement with the rising interest in spirituality in today s culture Book Jacket Heiden und Christen im 5.
