captured by the Butchulla people after she was shipwrecked on their island off the Queensland coast in 1836 In this deeply personal book Behrendt uses Eliza's tale as a starting point to interrogate how Aboriginal people and indigenous people of other countries have been portrayed in their colonisers' stories Exploring works as diverse as Robinson Crusoe and Coonardoo Behrendt looks at the stereotypes embedded in these accounts including the assumption of cannibalism and the myth of the noble savage Ultimately Finding Eliza shows how these stories not only reflect the values of their storytellers but also reinforce those values and how in Australia this has contributed to a complex racial divide Down to Earth Michael Rice, 2001-05-29 My name is Mona Tempus People of your world know me as Mother Nature So begins the funny fanciful and often times frightening dialogue between a strange beautiful woman and a skeptical bewildered man What evolves is a chronicle of the environmental devastation that has befallen our planet Mother Nature Mona with help from her crew an unforgettable cast of characters relates her insights into the dangers we face in the forms of rainforest destruction air and water pollution land degradation global warming species extinction and over population Blending the latest scientific findings with a history of the Earth's evolution from the Big Bang to the present day and drawing on such other disciplines as sociology anthropology and religion Mona offers her unique perspective on how we landed in this predicament Reminding us that we can't rely on Governments or Big Business to save us she issues a call to action for the peoples of Earth to rescue their planet and gives us a ray of hope in the myriad of solutions she proposes This original compelling book is a must read for anyone who cares about preserving Mother Earth both for their own and for future generations Migration and Cultural Contact: Germany and Australia Andrea Bandhauer, Maria Veber, 2010-02-01 The collected essays in Migration and Cultural Contact Germany and Australia investigate historical documents letters film literature and other cultural sources to reveal how each country influenced the culture intellectual thought and aesthetics of the other from earliest colonial times through to today Beyond the Black Gate Vol. II Anita Sutherland Gardner, James Gardner, 2024-05-15 Shortly after Jim and Anita married they moved to a small thirty acre primitive plot in Parke County Indiana known as the Covered Bridge Capital of America To gain entrance to this property you had to pass through the only structure on the property a black wooded farm gate It was beyond this black gate that Jim and Anita started their journey in life This journey was like many other folks' experiences filled with hopes dreams and abounding love to accomplish through hard work the challenges that life gives you to deal with Their life beyond the gate became a happy and fruitful life with many happy memories It also gave Anita the inspiration to write a manuscript Beyond the Black Gate She never lost sight and continued to build upon this endeavor Anita liked to express life in poetry and short essays so this is what this book has become Through these words our life dreams and inspiration are revealed In 2008 Jim and Anita retired to Cleburne County Arkansas on the family farm Anita's roots beyond the black gate went with them After many years as Anita and I finished our labor of love developing our little farm into a paradise to us anyhow we had an Amish neighbor Amos King to build a gate of steel
