Rosamund Masquerade Historical 43:

Masquerade and Postsocialism Gerald W. Creed, 2011-01-24 Jacket

The Hunt after Jeanne-Antoinette de Pompadour Rosamond Hooper-Hamersley, 2011-05-31 This book recasts the import of Mme de Pompadour as a political and artistic patron at the court of Versailles in mid eighteenth century France Pompadour's visual record is lush and the memoirs diaries correspondence and political records are fecund examples of the weight she carried In them she dazzles and impresses offering both a passionate and intellectual view of the tumult that characterized pre revolutionary France This extensive body of evidence supports the argument that her place on the balance sheet has been overlooked We find Pompadour simultaneously in multiple spheres of influence including the political arena the French Academy of Painting and Sculpture and the larger art public and finally within the Enlightenment advocating the ideas expressed by its principal proponents In 1745 Pompadour reigned as the new Favorite of Louis XV and kept company with him as a mistress for nearly five years She was beset by physical infirmities and exhausted by the king's insatiable appetite Pompadour instituted a striking transition in 1750 from mistress to friend effecting an iconographical rehabilitation and positioning herself as an indispensable power broker within political and cultural spheres until her death in 1764 This book stimulates the audience to sit up and take notice of Pompadour's worth and measure She is a fabulously engaging and magnetic individual whose particular influence contributed to the shifting landscape of France inching slowly toward revolution This work overturns prevailing views of Pompadour's detractors who blind us to her import as an agent not an object of change Here we find a nuanced image of Pompadour through a careful examination of archival and printed sources and the art that she patronized collectively revealing the charismatic breadth of her contributions As she declared unapologetically I am stubborn in the service of the King and I won't hold back in anything The historical timeline of France from 1745 to 1764 bears the unforgettable i

War and Theatrical Innovation Victor Emeljanow, 2017-10-14 This book examines the relationship between wartime conflict and theatre practices Bringing together a diverse collection of essays in one volume it offers both a geographically and historically wide view of the subject taking examples from Britain Australia and America to the Middle East Korea and China and spanning the fifth century BCE to the present day It explores the ways in which theatre practices have been manipulated for use in political and military propaganda such as the employment of scenographers to work on camouflage and the application of acting methods in espionage training It also maps the change in relationships between performers and audiences as a result of conflict and the emergence of new forms of patronage during wartime theatre going boosting morale at periods when social structures and identity were being destabilized

The Dressing Room Desirée J. Garcia, 2025 A recurrent and popular setting in American cinema the dressing room has captured the imagination of audiences for over a century In the only book length study of the space Desirée J Garcia explores how dressing rooms are dynamic realms in which a diverse cast of performers are made and exposed

Matria Redux Tegan

Zimmerman,2023-06-23 In Matria Redux Caribbean Women Novelize the Past author Tegan Zimmerman contends that there is a need for reading Caribbean women's texts relationally This comprehensive study argues that the writer's turn to maternal histories constitutes the definitive feature of this transcultural and transnational genre Through an array of Caribbean women's historical novels published roughly between 1980 and 2010 this book formulates the theory of matria an imagined maternal space and time as a postcolonial psychoanalytic feminist framework for reading fictions of maternal history written by and about Caribbean women Tracing the development of the historical novel in four periods of the Caribbean past slavery colonialism revolution and decolonization this study argues that a pan Caribbean generation of women writers of varying discursive racialized realities has depicted similar matria constructs and maternal motifs A politicized concept matria functions in the historical novel as a counternarrative to traditional historical and literary discourses Through close readings of the mother daughter plots in contemporary Caribbean women's historical fiction such as Andrea Levy's The Long Song Edwidge Danticat's The Farming of Bones Paule Marshall's Praisesong for the Widow and Marie Elena John's Unburnable Matria Redux considers the concept of matria an important vehicle for postcolonial psychoanalytic feminist literary resistance and political intervention Matria as a psychoanalytic postcolonial strategy therefore envisions by returning to history alternative feminist fictions futures and Caribbeans She-wolf Hannah

Priest,2018-07-30 She wolf explores the cultural history of the female werewolf from her first appearance in medieval literature to recent incarnations in film television and popular literature The book includes contributors from various disciplines and offers a cross period interdisciplinary exploration of a perennially popular cultural production The book covers material from the Middle Ages to the present day with chapters on folklore history witch trials Victorian literature young adult literature film and gaming Considering issues such as religious and social contexts colonialism constructions of racial and gendered identities corporeality and subjectivity as well as female body hair sexuality and violence She wolf reveals the varied ways in which the female werewolf is a manifestation of complex cultural anxieties as well as a site of continued fascination

Representations of the Orient in Western Music Nasser Al-Tae,2017-07-05 This book focuses on the cultural political and religious representations of the Orient in Western music Dr Nasser Al Tae traces several threads in a vast repertoire of musical representations concentrating primarily on the images of violence and sensuality Al Tae argues that these prevailing traits are not only the residual manifestation of the Ottoman threat to Western Europe but also the continuation of a long and complex history of fear and fascination towards the Orient and its Islamic religion In addition to analyses of musical works Al Tae draws on travel accounts paintings biographies and political events to engage with important issues such as gender race and religious differences that may have contributed to the variously complex images of the Orient in Western music The study extends the range of Orientalism to cover eighteenth century Austria nineteenth century Russia and twentieth century America The book challenges those scholars who do not see Orientalism as problematic and tend to ignore the role of musical representations in shaping the image of the Other within a wider interdisciplinary study of knowledge and power

The Bedtrick Wendy Doniger, 2022-08-22 Somehow I woke up one day and found myself in bed with a stranger Meant literally or figuratively this statement describes one of the best known plots in world mythology and popular storytelling In a tour that runs from Shakespeare to Hollywood and from Abraham Lincoln to Casanova the erudite and irrepressible Wendy Doniger shows us the variety danger and allure of the bedtrick or what it means to wake up with a stranger The Bedtrick brings together hundreds of stories from all over the world from the earliest recorded Hindu and Hebrew texts to the latest item in the Weekly World News to show the hilariously convoluted sexual scrapes that people manage to get themselves into and out of Here you will find wives who accidentally commit adultery with their own husbands You will read Lincoln s truly terrible poem about a bedtrick You will learn that in Hong Kong the film The Crying Game was retitled Oh No My Girlfriend Has a Penis And that President Clinton was not the first man to be identified by an idiosyncratic organ At the bottom of these wonderful stories ancient myths and historical anecdotes lie the dynamics of sex and gender power and identity Why can t people tell the difference in the dark Can love always tell the difference between one lover and another And what kind of truth does sex tell Funny sexy and engaging The Bedtrick is a masterful work of energetic storytelling and dazzling scholarship Give it to your spouse and your lover
