The Ground of Our Beseeking Peter Sharpe,2004 The Ground of Our Beseeking Metaphor and the Poetics of Meditation describes the signature styles of meditation in three American poets and shows how each generated language out of spiritual yearning The author s inquiry in this area grew out of an interest in the interplay of creativity language and religion and a need to know as both critic and practicing poet how metaphor arises particularly in the context of poetry which hearkens after the sacred How far in other words has metaphor taken some of our central poets T S Eliot Wallace Stevens and Theodore Roethke in matters of belief No other critique of American poetry prior to this study has systematically linked the idea of the sacred with the practice of metaphor Nor has a compelling case been made until now for viewing meditation a style of thinking close to prayer as the source or ground of these poets BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      The Visible and the Invisible in the Interplay between Philosophy, Literature and Reality Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2002-03-31 Merleau Ponty s categories of the visible and the invisible are investigated afresh and with originality in this penetrating collection of literary and philosophical inquiries Going beyond the traditional and current references to the mental and the sensory mind and body perceptual content and the abstract ideas conveyed in language etc these studies range from the hidden spheres of reality to the play of the visible and the invisible left as traces in works of human genius the origins of intellect and language the real and the imaginary in literature and the hidden realities in the philosophy of the everyday world These literary and philosophical probings collectively reveal the role of this disjoined conjoined pairing in the onto-poietic establishment of reality that is in the manifestation of the logos of life In tandem they bring to light the hidden play of the visible and the invisible in the
