Reimer,2009-08-01 The essays in Home Words explore the complexity of the idea of home through various theoretical lenses and groupings of texts One focus of this collection is the relation between the discourses of nation which often represent the nation as home and the discourses of home in children s literature which variously picture home as a dwelling family town or region psychological comfort and a place to start from and return to These essays consider the myriad ways in which discourses of home underwrite both children s and national literatures Home Words reconfigures the field of Canadian children s literature as it is usually represented by setting the study of English and French language texts side by side and by paying sustained attention to the diversity of work by Canadian writers for children including both Aboriginal peoples and racialized Canadians It builds on the literary histories bibliographical essays and biographical criticism that have dominated the scholarship to date and sets out to determine and establish new directions for the study of Canadian children s literature

Rengasamy,2021-02-21 The great Lord the Flautist Krishna has come down to kiss us We cover our cheeks with our hands We do not want His kiss We want something else an I phone a larger house promotion pay hike oh it s a long list Lord Krishna gave Bhagavad Gita to us only to prepare us for His kiss The kind Lord almost whispered Bhagavad Gita in your ears Why Only to remove your hands from your cheeks So that He can kiss you with His beautiful lips I beg of you dears please remove your hands Once you taste His kiss everything else in the world will be insipid And that kiss can even transform an ugly frog into a handsome prince But once you taste that kiss you will never want to become a prince You will rather be a frog living in filth waiting for that kiss for all eternity The name Bhagavad Gita has been translated as The Divine Song Or The Song Celestial Or as The Song of Love Personally I will prefer to translate it as Krishna s Kiss Can you think of something better This is not a religious book but a book that will usher in a new religion a religion of love Lalitha Shivaguru Reviewer

Ganagita Questa Lagall,2024-09-02 Beyond belief in parts and totally compelling this unique take on love has delivered an unstoppable read Legall has captured something special almost mystical A remarkable life story of love and loss across continents and cultures When an Australian woman meets an Indian doctor their lives become inextricably bound together with an exceptional devotion that overcomes diverse challenges across the years surpassing even death In a life far from ordinary the couple move between Australia and India in their quest for happiness embracing the opportunities that both cultures present and contending with the difficulties of personal health differing traditions and even legal corruption India is revealed in all its contradictory facets colourful beautiful peaceful and timeless yet corrupt and dangerous Riches and poverty are side by side and to Western eyes its people can seem both extraordinarily benevolent and frighteningly pitiless In a memoir that moves easily between fast paced suspense sombre reflection and a deep insight into the true nature of love this book is testament to the resilience and generosity of the human spirit at its finest Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998

Canadian Books in Print ,2001 Blue Roses; Or, Helen Malinofska's Marriage Charlotte Louisa Hawkins Dempster,1877 Canadian Book Review Annual ,1998 Quiet Gardens Susan Bowden-Pickstock,2009-07-11 Quiet Gardens describes a journey that seeks to re investigate humankind s relationship with nature and through this an understanding of what is spiritual For many enjoying and or making a garden is both a connection with the wider environment and a link to that which is beyond ourselves From some of the unusual and remarkable gardens of the Christian charity the Quiet Garden Trust and conversations with some of today s leading garden creators and thinkers the journey takes us on a path of exploration and discovery via Buddhist Ba hai and Islamic gardens to the making of an inter faith garden which won a medal at the Chelsea Flower Show It shows us that the relationship between meaning spirituality and horticulture transcends cultural and religious differences and offers hope for the future Indian Women's Writing in English Joel Kuortti,2002 This is a remarkable collection of information on Indian women s writing written originally in English Beginning from the 19th century it introduces 444 writers of poetry and fiction Now it has been a part of common critical parlance to say that the Indian English women's writing is in ascendance. One aim of this bibliography is to illustrate this phenomenon and to emphasise the variety of writing. Writers included in the bibliography come from all over India and from the Indian diaspora all over the world. Another aim of this bibliography is to make us aware of the constructed nature of writerhood. A given writer's texts do not exist and circulate in a vacuum but in a context. We can see that Indian English women's writing is taking place. But what we do not see is the critical establishment that is literary scholars and critics taking much note of it.
