Ross Macdonald Matthew Joseph Bruccoli, 1984 The Ecoapoetics of War Sylvain Belluc, Isabelle Brasme, Guillaume Tanguy, 2024-12-30 The Ecoapoetics of War explores the interrelationality of human and nonhuman entities in the context of conflict as recorded in literature and culture. This collection of essays demonstrates the specific and fertile role of literature in representations of war as it foregrounds the manifold ways in which the borders between human and nonhuman including flora fauna and technology become porous thus questioning traditional onto epistemological and ethical categories. Bringing together British American and postcolonial studies The Ecoapoetics of War covers a variety of historical periods geographical areas and literary genres. Interdisciplinary in its outlook it intertwines war studies ecocriticism literary theory philosophy and cultural studies. By analyzing the stylistic and discursive strategies devised by writers to translate the sensory experience of the battlefield the contributors shed light on the unique capacity of literature to foreground the entanglement of human and nonhuman in the context of armed conflict and thus unveil an ecoapoetics of war. This collection will interest scholars of literature specialists of war studies and ecocriticism and any reader interested in such issues such as ecowar ecocide the Anthropocene or environmental justice. It can inspire interdisciplinary teaching or research projects especially in the current context of global environmental crisis.
