 love Reading Paul Howard Eugene O'Brien,2023-12-22 Reading Paul Howard The Art of Ross O Carroll Kelly offers a thorough examination of narrative devices satirical modes cultural context and humour in Howard s texts The volume argues that his academic critical neglect is due to a classic bifurcation in Irish Studies between high and popular culture and it will use the thought of Pierre Bourdieu Sigmund Freud Mikhail Bakhtin and Jacques Derrida to critique this division building a theoretical platform from which to examine the significance of Howard s work as an Irish comic and satirical writer Addressing both the style and the substance of his work this text locates him in a tradition of Irish satirical writing that dates back to the Gaelic bards and it includes writers like Swift Wilde Flann O'Brien and Joyce Through textual and contextual analysis this book makes the case for Howard as a significant and original voice in Irish writing whose fusion of the three traditional types of satire Horatian Juvenalian and Menippean has created a parallel Ireland that shines a satirical light on its real counterpart As Freud suggests humour is a way of accessing aspects of the psyche that normative discourses cannot enunciate and Howard through the confessional voice of Ross offers a fictive truth on 20 years of Irish society a truth that is not accessed by discourse in the public sphere or by what could be termed literary or high cultural fiction The Routledge Companion to Literature and Food Lorna Piatti-Farnell,Donna Lee Brien,2018-04-19 The Routledge Companion to Literature and Food explores the relationship between food and literature in transnational contexts serving as both an introduction and a guide to the field in terms of defining characteristics and development Balancing a wide reaching view of the long histories and preoccupations of literary food studies with attentiveness to recent developments and shifts the volume illuminates the aesthetic cultural political and intellectual diversity of the representation of food and eating in language is now a lingua franca spoken by about two billion people This insightful study considers how a bridge language affects world literature by analyzing what it is how it works what are its themes what it means for canons and how it is mediated Cultural criticism often employs perspectives of race citizenship and colonialism as well as considerations of scale archipelagic planetary form analogies between the literary and the social and technologies as they inflect artifacts These approaches help rethink the new dynamics of anglophone literature but they have often overlooked one of the basic elements of literature the language itself Literatures in English vernaculars have flourished and Justin Quinn shows that writers are also creating a new idiom in English that is not fixed to a particular locale or community While sentences may become simpler the vocabulary range narrower and rich cultural references lost Quinn reveals how much this new form of writing gains He explores the work of a wide range of authors including Daisy Hildyard Kim Stanley Robinson Bryan Washington Yiyun Li and Terrance Hayes Literature in the Age of Lingua Franca English The Zero Style is an innovative and illuminating resource for students and scholars of global anglophone literature comparative literature and cultural studies The

Undecidable Clare Gorman,2015-09-18 This book offers a detailed engagement between the French philosopher Jacques Derrida and the contemporary Irish author Paul Howard aka Ross O Carroll Kelly The book offers insightful analyses of Derrida s deconstructive theory with all its concepts non concepts and neologisms thus showing how they can be used in order to provide a critique of the socio linguistic realm of Howard s fictional series Through his work Howard set in ink a depiction of Ireland and specifically Dublin throughout the Celtic Tiger era and its aftermath The book promotes a dialogue between Derrida and Howard in order to cultivate a succinct and accessible overview of critical theory Books Ireland
