Michaelides, Vasiliki Kassianidou, Robert S. Merrillees, 2009-10-30 The international conference Egypt and Cyprus in Antiquity held in Nicosia in April 2003 filled an important gap in historical knowledge about Cyprus relations with its neighbours While the island's links with the Aegean and the Levant have been well documented and continue to be the subject of much archaeological attention the exchanges between Cyprus and the Nile Valley are not as well known and have not before been comprehensively reviewed They range in date from the mid third millennium B C to Late Antiquity and encompass every kind of interconnection including political union Their novelty lies in the marked differences between the ancient civilisations of Cyprus and Egypt the distance between them geographically which could be bridged only by ship and the unusual ways they influenced each other's material and spiritual cultures The papers delivered at the conference covered every aspect of the relationship with special emphasis on the tangible evidence for the movement of goods people and ideas between the two countries over a 3000 year period
