Royal Canon Of Turin:

The Political Situation in Egypt During the Second Intermediate Period, C. 1800-1550 B.C. K. S. B. Ryholt, Adam Bülow-Jacobsen, 1997 The Second Intermediate Period designates the 250 year period 1800-1550 BC which separates the two glorious periods of the Middle Kingdom and the New Kingdom During the 19th century BC an invasion by Canaanite tribes into the Delta took place Around 1800 BC these people proclaimed their own king and the Delta thus became independent from the rest of Egypt Egypt remained split between the Canaanitic rulers in North and the native Egyptian Kings in the South for the rest of the Second Intermediate Period The division of Egypt brought about an economic decline and the entire period is characterized by a lack of royal monuments This circumstance has greatly hampered any attempts to establish a chronology of the period and as a consequence it has been very difficult to date many sources which are relevant for the social and political situation of the period The Second Intermediate Period has therefore remained one of the most obscure periods of Egypt's ancient history The dissertation is a new attempt to establish a chronology for the Second Intermediate Period and define the different kingdoms their territories and political relations The study consists of four main chapters three appendixes a catalogue of sources bibliography and indices Included is a catalogue of all the historical sources about 1500 known to certify the names of the Egyptian kings of the Second Intermediate Period Each source is described in terms of type origin and present location followed by bibliographical references The Royal Canon of Turin Sir Alan Henderson Gardiner, 1987 The Royal canon of Turin Alan Henderson Gardiner, 1959 Papyrus No. 1874. from around the world gathered to consider new perspectives on the Pyramid Age the results are presented here

David, 2002-11 Important historical and cultural figures as well as some less well known individuals in Egypt's long history are incorporated in this scholarly work of reference Egypt, Canaan, and Israel in Ancient Times Donald B. Redford, 2020-06-30 Covering the time span from the Paleolithic period to the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 B C the eminent Egyptologist Donald Redford explores three thousand years of uninterrupted contact between Egypt and Western Asia across the Sinai land bridge In the vivid and lucid style that we expect from the author of the popular Akhenaten Redford presents a sweeping narrative of the love hate relationship between the peoples of ancient Israel Palestine and Egypt World Antiquarianism Alain Schnapp, 2014-02-01 The term antiquarianism refers to engagement with the material heritage of the past an engagement that preceded the modern academic discipline of archaeology Antiquarian activities result in the elaboration of particular social behaviors and the production of tools for exploring the collective memory This book is the first to compare antiquarianism in a global context examining its roots in the ancient Near East its flourishing in early modern Europe and East Asia and its manifestations in nonliterate societies of Melanesia and Polynesia By establishing wide reaching geographical and historical perspectives the essays reveal the universality of antiquarianism as an embodiment of the human mind and open new avenues for understanding the representation of the past from ancient societies to the present "Ra is My Lord" Jochem Kahl, 2007 Due to extremely poor and difficult sources we are as much in the dark about the history of the Egyptian 2nd Dynasty c 2850 2700 BCE as we are about the Gods worshipped at that time Nor are we sure about the reigns and order of kings from this period having assumed that veneration of the Sun God Re began during the 2nd Dynasty opinion has changed over the last thirty years evidence for the worship of Re has been found only for the beginning of the 3rd Dynasty

Silhouettes of Scripture David B. Schreiner, Drew S. Holland, 2023-06-12 The contextual approach and form criticism are two well established methodologies in Biblical Studies but the natural affinities between the two have historically gone under appreciated Yet the substantial reconsideration of classic tenets of form criticism that has transpired in recent memory has further separated these two like minded methods Through a series of case studies that carefully consider certain Old Testament texts contextually Silhouettes of Scripture Considering the Contextual Approach with Form criticism considers important methodological critiques and fuse elements of both methods in order to not only re focus natural affinities but also more precisely define how contextual studies could proceed Initiated by a literary trigger Schreiner and Holland s method navigates between what has been called parallelomania and parallelomania to consider a range of similarities and differences in terms of broad and narrow convergences The result is a work that not only looks upon well known parallels with fresh eyes but also seeks to establish new trajectories
